The Warren Report

Europe 'Storm' Seen If It Holds Oswald Acted Alone

LONDON (AP) — The Warren commission's report on President John F. Kennedy's assassination is certain to produce a storm of controversy in Europe if it holds that the accused killer, Lee Harvey Oswald, acted alone.

An Associated Press survey of nine European countries today showed that leftist circles will take the lead in charging a whitewash if the commission's report, to be made public Sunday, upholds the FBI's version of the Dallas killing.

Europeans in general have regarded reports from Dallas with feelings ranging from misgiving to outright suspicion. Leftist organizations have long subscribed to the theory, that the assassination was a rightist conspiracy with Oswald as its tool and that Dallas nightclub operator Jack Ruby shot Oswald to silence him.

The publication in Europe, as a newspaper serial and as a book, of "Who Killed Kennedy?" by Baltimore reporter Thomas G. Buchanan, has added to the doubt. So has New York lawyer Mark Lane, who toured the continent denying that Oswald was the assassin.

A "Who Killed Kennedy?" committee has been formed in Britain by Bertrand Earl Russell, 92, the philosopher and pacifist.

But British opposition to the Warren report probably will generally be confined to leftists.

In eight continental countries, this is the situation:

Italy — Immediately after the killing there was widespread speculation that the assassination might have been part of a plot. But the majority of the Italian press came around to the view that the assassination was the work only of Oswald. Left-wing papers persist in raising the plot theory.

France — If the Warren commission says Oswald acted alone, there will very likely be widespread feelings of an attempt to cover up a plot. The U.S. police, particularly the Dallas force, will undoubtedly be accused either of inefficiency or of a politically motivated cover-up.

No amount of evidence presented up to now makes the average Frenchman — or most newspaper editors — believe it was a cut-and-dried, one-man killing.

West Germany — A book advancing conspiracy theory is a best-seller. Its author, Hungarian-born Hans Habe, spent the war years in the United States and now lives in Switzerland.

land. His book, "Death in Dallas" claims reactionary millionaires and white trash conspired to kill Kennedy.

The Netherlands — Dutch newspapers have shown great interest in the assassination. The theory of an extreme right-wing conspiracy continues in leftist circles.

Belgium — Leftists subscribe generally to the theory of a rightist plot. Newspapers of other political coloring generally have adopted a wait-and-see attitude although conflicting or mysterious points of evidence have frequently been pointed out.

Norway — The liberal afternoon newspaper Dagbladet published the Buchanan conspiracy story in serial form. Otherwise only Orientering, weekly organ of the tiny People's Socialist party, has published stories supporting the conspiracy theory.

Sweden — The conspiracy theory has had widespread publication. Doubts are expected to return to many with the issuing of the Warren commission report.

Denmark — The belief in a conspiracy is rather widespread, and several newspapers have shown skepticism that Oswald acted alone. Many editors suspect he was silenced.

Barry Says Democrats Are Corrupt

Declares President Shows No Signs Of Backing Rights Act

ENROUTE WITH GOLDWATER (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater accused the Democrats of corruption and coverup today, and coupled that with a charge that President Johnson "shows no inclination" to support the new civil rights law.

The Republican presidential nominee plunged into a whirlwind tour of northern New England—with a quick trip into New York—declaring that the civil rights bill he opposed in the Senate has not solved the problem of inequality.

"It's not going to do it unless it's enforced and the present administration shows no inclination towards supporting it," he told a police-estimated 1,500 people at an early morning rally at the Portland, Maine, airport.

Goldwater said laws won't really do the job anyhow. He spotted a hostile placard in the crowd challenging his stand on civil rights. "You too can be a second-class citizen," the sign said, "support civil rights."

"The law passed on civil rights will never correct the inequity in this country," he said. Goldwater said it is a problem that must be solved first in the hearts of Americans.

Goldwater said he hopes the law will help do the job—but added it can't accomplish anything if it is not enforced.

And he added that discrimination is wrong whether it is aimed at Negroes or at any other minority group.

Goldwater slapped the administration on the Bobby Baker affair, forecasting a whitewash of what he called a kickback "that could have directly benefited Lyndon Johnson's political career." That charge came in a speech prepared for delivery at Albany, N.Y.

In Albany, he was to have a private chat with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who battled him for the GOP nomination last summer.

Skipping across an area he conceded will be tough to carry in November, the Arizona senator pointed to the Senate Rules Committee's reopened investigation of the Baker case and declared:

"We must realistically expect that what we will actually get will be very little of the truth, the truth full of holes, and nothing but the same old run-around."

This time, the committee is to look into the charges of Sen. John Williams, R-Del., that former Democratic national treasurer Matthew McCloskey — through Baker — dropped $25,000 into the 1960 Democratic campaign fund as a "kickback" on the contract for building the District of Columbia stadium.

McCloskey is a Philadelphia contractor who was named U.S. ambassador to Ireland by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Goldwater said in a prepared address for some 24,000 cheering political fans at Fenway Park in Boston that the money "could have been siphoned into the Johnson campaign fund in 1960 — at a time when Lyndon Johnson was trying to take the Democratic nomination from John Fitzgerald Kennedy."

However, Goldwater didn't (Turn to GOLDWATER, Pg. 6)

BEFORE VOTE. The Senate approved Thursday legislation to postpone the reapportionment controversy and let Congress finish its work for the year. By a 44-38 vote, the Senate endorsed a mildly-worded "sense of Congress" declaration urging federal courts to give states up to six months to reapportion their legislatures. Here, before the vote, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, Minority Leader Everett Dirksen and Sen. Clinton P. Anderson look over the declaration. (UPI Telephoto)

Removes Big Roadblock To Adjournment

Senate Passes Aid Bill, OKs Redistricting Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has removed a major roadblock to adjournment of Congress by adopting a legislative reapportionment compromise and then passing the $3.3-billion foreign-aid bill.

First, the compromise solution to the controversy over apportionment was adopted 44 to 38 Thursday, then, in a sudden burst of action, the aid bill to which it is attached was swept through 45 to 16.

With adjournment fever spreading and leaders finding it difficult to keep enough campaigning senators on hand to maintain a quorum, it is now thought possible that Congress will be able to close shop by the end of next week.

The foreign-aid measure, carrying $216,700,000 less than the $3,516,700,000 requested by President Johnson and authorized by the House June 10 was called up in the Senate Aug. 1.

But since Aug. 12 it had been entangled in a filibuster waged by a group of Democratic liberals against an amendment offered by Republican Senate Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. Dirksen would have forced a delay of a year or more of Supreme Court-ordered reapportionment of both Houses of state legislatures on a population basis.

The stalemate was broken by the adoption of a mild, nonbinding "sense of Congress" proposal offered by Democratic Senate Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana as a substitute for the Dirksen proposal, which he originally cosponsored.

Stripped of any criticism of the Supreme Court ruling and having no force of law, it simply says it is the sense of Congress that the federal district courts could properly:

1. Allow legislatures the length of time provided for a regular session, plus 30 days, but not more than six months in which to reapportion.
2. Permit the next elections of members of legislatures to be conducted on the basis of state laws in effect last Sunday, Sept. 20.

And it suggests that if states fail to reapportion within the time granted in any court order, the courts themselves shall apportion representation.

The foreign-aid measure now goes to a Senate-House conference committee for a reconciliation of differences in their two bills.

The House already has gone a step farther than the Senate and passed an appropriation — for $3,316,572,000. Senate action on that measure must await final congressional action on the authorizations, which set aid ceilings.

As for reapportionment, the House has passed a separate, tough bill aimed at stripping all the federal courts of any jurisdiction over state apportionment. The Senate rejected that proposal when it was offered as an amendment to the foreign-aid bill.

Senate-House conferees will tackle the reapportionment amendment as well as money differences in the two bills.

Agreement Not Attained At Deadline

Negotiators Now Try To Ward Off U.S.-Wide Walkout

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers' 10 a.m. (EST) strike deadline against General Motors passed without official announcement of any contract settlement and strikes began at numerous GM plants across the nation.

Negotiators, trying to ward off a nationwide walkout of 260,000 GM production workers, worked past the deadline.

Strikes began, however, at the Fisher Body plant in Norwood, Ohio, a Cincinnati suburb.

UAW offices in Flint, Saginaw and Pontiac, Mich., also announced strikes had begun.

The great Flint GM operation is the center of the corporation's production empire.

The other union locals—two in Framingham, Mass., and one in Cleveland, had walked out an hour in advance of the strike deadline.

At Flint, workers at the AC spark plug factory and the Ternstedt plant stayed on the job. These plants were exempt from the strike by UAW order. The two, among many others, are suppliers to competitive Ford and Chrysler.

Though there was no formal word from the negotiators at 10 a.m., a representative of the United Electrical Workers Union, also bargaining for a new GM contract, said he was certain there would be a national strike.

Pickets appeared at the Pontiac Motors plant in Pontiac, Mich.

Plants in Detroit, Saginaw, Grand Rapids and Lansing, Mich., and Wilmington, Del., also were down.

The UAW had sought to prevent premature walkouts.

Odds were reported 60-40 by one bargaining — room source that no settlement would be reached in time to prevent a national walkout after negotiations had been at the table for 22 continuous hours.

Even if agreement is reached on a national contract between GM and the UAW, most informed quarters forecast local-level strikes in support of plant working agreements which supplement it.

Overnight GM reported a pre-deadline walkout at a Fisher body plant in Cleveland and temporary milling at the gates of a key stamping plant at Mansfield, Ohio as the midnight shift reported. There have been threats of walkouts in Flint, Mich., come what may in national bargaining.

Non-economic issues, rather than money, stymied bargainers in the last hours, although UAW President Walter P. Reuther had vowed to make "a la mode" the cake he claimed to have won at Chrysler and to have frosted at Ford.

Reuther estimated these new pacts were worth 54 cents an hour over their three-year life, and on top of higher pensions, earlier retirement and other gains at Chrysler he got a $25 to $100 Christmas bonus at Ford.

Shortly after negotiations began their session Thursday, Reuther proposed differences on grievance procedures, union representation in the plants, production quotas, discipline and working conditions be submitted to binding arbitration.

The company rejected this adding, "We have heard this loaded type of arbitration proposal many times before."

78 Homes, Buildings Destroyed

1 Man Killed, 36 Injured In California Brush Fire

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — A fire which twice burned into the hillside suburbs of Santa Barbara turned away today and blazed into lightly populated inland valleys.

It was the third time the fire seemed to be moving away from Santa Barbara. Firemen couldn't say whether it could turn and hit the city again.

The fire has now blackened 40,000 acres, killed one man and injured 36 others, all firefighters.

It has destroyed 78 homes and buildings, including the luxurious homes of Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, and Dr. Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions.

Santa Ana winds — the "devil winds" which sweep down coastal canyons to the sea — have three times sent the blaze burning toward Santa Barbara, a city of 65,000, nestled between the Pacific and the Santa Ynez Mountains.

The fire started Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m., was hit hard by fast-moving firemen and aerial tanker planes, and seemed headed inland by 9 p.m.

then came the devil winds. In an hour 12 homes burned.

U.S. Forest Service firefighters, bolstered by county and city firemen, blocked it again. By 7 p.m. Wednesday the fire had covered 2,000 acres, but the air at dusk was cool, and the fire was again moving inland.

Again the winds struck. In eight minutes the temperature rose 12 degrees and winds of 50 miles an hour pushed flames toward the city.

To the east — the ocean lines to Santa Barbara's south and west — one tongue raced into Montecito — the home of countless millionaires and the most elegant California suburb hit by fire since the Bel Air blaze of 1961. Thirty homes, many of them mansions, were destroyed, including Brundage's 20-room mansion and Hutchins' $100,000 home.

Northeast of the city, Westmont College was hit, two buildings, one a dorm evacuated earlier, burned.

Then, swept by winds from the northeast, the fire raced eight miles westward through the oak and eucalyptus groves in canyons studded with moderately-priced to expensive homes. Twenty-four more were destroyed.

Twice the flames trapped whole teams of firemen, but most of the men escaped serious injury.

But at one spot — on Romero Saddle northeast of Montecito — four men were trapped by flames from three directions. Three huddled against an embankment and one tried to run through the flames. The three survived. The fourth, John L. Patterson, 45, of Yreka, Calif., fell and was burned to death.

In other areas of California, firefighters have pushed brushfires into relatively unoccupied territories. An estimated 83,000 acres of brush and timberland have been consumed in five northern counties in six days.

The northern fires had destroyed an estimated 250 buildings in Sonoma, Napa, Lake, Humboldt and Mendocino Counties. The buildings included homes, vacation cabins and farm buildings.

A spokesman for the state division of forestry said "the fire figures are staggering. But it would be ridiculous to attempt to estimate damages in dollars at this time."

Who Will Be Nominee?

W. Va. High Court To Act In Hancock Ballot Dispute

A dispute between candidates for an unexpired term on the Hancock County Court will reach West Virginia State Supreme Court at Charleston Tuesday.

The court has scheduled a hearing on a petition seeking to remove the name of John S. Bryan Jr. from the November ballot as Democratic candidate and substitute Jack Evans.

The petition was filed by Evans and Edward A. Zagula of Weirton, chairman of the Hancock Democratic Executive Committee.

The dispute stems from nomination of Bryan by one Democratic Executive Committee and the nomination of Evans by a succeeding committee.

Gov. W. W. Barron appointed Evans to fill the unexpired term of the late County Court Commissioner Robert E. Roach, after the other two commissioners couldn't agree on a successor.

Meanwhile, the outgoing Democratic Executive Committee chose Bryan as the nominee for the unexpired term in the November election, the petition says.

Four days later, the incoming County Democratic Executive Committee met. The petition says the chairman — Dick Wright — attempted to adjourn without a nomination and walked out.

After Wright left, the petition states, the committee elected Zagula chairman and later nominated Evans as the court candidate — revoking Bryan's nomination.

The petition says that the county ballot commissioners, however, refused to go along with the new committee and placed Bryan's name on the ballot.

Voter Signup Set 2 Nights For Hancock

Following a customary procedure, the Hancock County Courthouse in New Cumberland will be open two nights next week to give county residents additional opportunity to register for the Nov. 3 general election.

Mrs. Mary Stewart, county clerk, said the Courthouse will be open Wednesday and Thursday from 6 to 9 p. m. to register voters.

She pointed out the deadline for registering change in address or change in political party is Oct. 3 at noon, or 30 days before the general election.

Voters may also make new or changed registrations during the regular hours of the Courthouse.

The deadline for application for absentee ballots is Oct. 30, and if returned by mail, they (Turn to HANCOCK, Page 6)

City Is Among 19 In Airport Proposals

East Liverpool is among 19 Ohio cities included in a new national airport plan issued at Washington by the Federal Aviation Agency "recommending" construction of 727 new landing facilities and improvements over the next five years.

The proposed plan does not commit federal funds but serves only as a recommendation for airport development. Salem, Coshocton, Kenton, Lorain, Newark, Sandusky, Washington Court House and Wooster are some of the others.

'Bouncing' Baby Girl—10 Pounds Mother Of Quints Gives Birth To Her 11th Child

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) — A "bouncing" baby girl of 10 pounds plus was born Thursday night to Mrs. Andrew Fischer, 31, who gave birth to quintuplets a little over a year ago.

The baby — who weighed 10 pounds, 7 ounces and measured 21½ inches — and the mother were doing well at St. Luke's Hospital, a spokesman reported.

The sandy-haired mother of 11 children lapsed into sleep shortly after the birth, and there was no immediate comment from her.

Andy Fischer, 39, was at the hospital and took the news in good stride, except for one thing. He said he and his wife, Mary Ann, had been hoping for a boy since the lads were outnumbered two to eight.

His reaction was relayed by Sister Richard, and the shy father secluded himself for the night, announcing he was not available to reporters.

Dr. James Hovland delivered the latest child and was assisted by two doctors who had attended Dr. James Berbos when Berbos was in charge of the quint's delivery Sept. 14, 1963.

The quintuplets weighed from 2½ to 4 pounds and were kept in isolettes for days with careful check on temperature and humidity. They were fed through tubes put into their noses.

The news that Mrs. Fischer had given birth to four girls and a boy one year ago this month rocketed the family into world fame and fortune.

Mercury May Near Frost Range Tonight

Autumn's only a couple of days old but the temperature is rapidly becoming appropriate for the season.

The downtown had a cool 49 at 6 this morning and the Ohio weatherman said a low range of 40 to 45 is likely tonight. Something near 40 will produce frost in low-lying areas, especially with clear skies forecast.

Today's high may not exceed 58 to 64 degrees. Blustery winds accompanied the cool spell that arrived Thursday afternoon. Saturday will see increasing cloudiness and warmer.

But the warmup may be brief, as the five-day forecast indicates temperatures will average 2 to 5 degrees below normal early next week, moderating again Wednesday. Scattered showers are due the first part of the week.

Southwestern Tour Opened By Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson heads today for Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas on a tour that includes an on-the-border meeting with Mexico's President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

Johnson's first stop is El Paso, Tex., for the ceremonial meeting with Lopez Mateos. Johnson then flies to Eufaula, Okla., Oklahoma City, Texarkana, Ark., and, finally, the LBJ Ranch at Johnson City, Tex., for a weekend stay.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, was in Texas and Oklahoma this week and had canvassed Arkansas earlier.

The three states have a total of 40 electoral votes. Texas, with 25 votes and Arkansas, with 6 went Democratic in 1960 and Oklahoma's 8 votes wound up in the Republican column.

Johnson's meeting with Lopez Mateos, who will give up the Mexican presidency next month, was in the nature of a celebration of last year's El Chamizal Treaty settling a 97-year-old border dispute between the United States and Mexico.

Terms of the treaty call for the two countries to exchange various parcels of land in the El Paso area, with Mexico netting a gain of 437 acres. The two countries also will collaborate in putting the Rio Grande into a concrete channel along the new border so the river won't wander again in the future and cause further boundary difficulties.

3 French Children Safe After Abduction Monday

PARIS (AP) — Three French schoolchildren kidnapped last Monday were found safe today by the side of a road near Bordeaux, in southwestern France.

The children told police a young man and a woman called "Nicole" had let them out of a light blue car.

The three, Joel Biet and Patrick Guillon, both 5, and Patrick's sister Christine, 6, were pronounced in excellent health. They had not been mistreated.

There was no indication whether a $210,000 ransom demand had been paid.

Two letters Thursday, presumably from the kidnappers, threatened the lives of the children unless merchants of the city of Poitiers paid the ransom by 1 p.m. Eastern Standard Time today. Poitiers is the nearest city to the village of Marnay where the children live.

The youngsters were found shortly after daylight by a young woman who recognized them from police descriptions. She notified gendarmes at the little town of Carbon-Blanc, about 15 miles from Bordeaux.

The police took the children to Bordeaux. The tots told them they had not been mistreated and had "slept in beds." They also said they had been taken on several brief automobile trips.

Police believe the automobile trips were made so that the kidnappers could keep on the move. But the children described them as "automobile promenades" — pleasure rides.

The youngsters were reported giving an intelligible report of their experience. All had been described as bright and articulate.

The police first said they were driving the children back to their parents about 130 miles north of Bordeaux. Later they announced they would take the two families to Bordeaux. It appeared that they wanted to get all the details of the experience from the children before the emotional reunions.

Hundreds of police who had been searching for the children began a hunt for the kidnappers. The three were kidnapped on their way home from school and were in the hands of their abductors about 85 hours.

Neither the Biet nor the Guillon have money and police were at first puzzled by the motive for the kidnapping. Then the kidnappers demanded the payment by proxy. Police were startled at the medieval touch of the abductors — demanding retribution from total strangers who they obviously felt would pay rather than see the children killed.

4-H News

Barbara Staggers was elected president of the Cherokee 4-H Club at its meeting Tuesday at the home of the leader, Mrs. William Schladen, of Lawrenceville.

Jenny Hillyard was named vice president with Cathy Stover as secretary and Debbie Stover as treasurer.

The committees included Fred Bryan and Russell Smith, conservation; Diane Schladen, recreation; Linda Gallop, devotion; Brenda Gallop, song leader, and Robert Bryan, news reporter.

Miss Schladen, retiring president, presided for business when the club decided to hold future meetings the third Tuesday of each month at the home of Mrs. Ruth Smith.

Devotions were led by the retiring president with Debbie Stover, song leader, leading group singing.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Schladen and son, William Schladen Jr.

Barbara Ripley conducted devotions at a meeting of the Glendale 4-H Club Tuesday night at the home of the leader, Mrs. Theresa Galloway, of the Glendale Rd., Newell.

New officers will be announced at the next meeting Oct. 5 with Mrs. Galloway.

Hearing Due Monday For Cutting Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today set a preliminary hearing Monday at 9 a. m. for a 28-year-old East Liverpool man accused of wielding a broken beer bottle to cut a Pennsylvania Thursday night outside a downtown tavern.

Robert Eugene David Moore, 304 Broadway, pleaded not guilty at arraignment this morning on a felony charge of cutting with intent to wound Paul Baker, 35, of Wampum R. D. 2.

Baker was in "good" condition today at City Hospital with a wound of the left thigh and two cuts over the left eye. He is scheduled for surgery.

The charges against Moore were signed by Patrolman Howard E. Frontz. The defendant pleaded not guilty. Judge Chertoff set his bond at $1,000.

Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark, the prosecutor, asked a continuance to permit Baker to appear as a witness.

Officer Frontz said police have witnesses who said Moore broke a beer bottle and then used it as a weapon in attacking Baker.

Frontz and Patrolman Paul Blevins were dispatched at 11:17 last night to investigate a report Baker had been injured outside Sandy's Tavern on St. Clair Ave.

They said Baker reported he "may have fallen or something," resulting in the injury. Ramona Bennett of Washington St. and James Salsberry of W. 7th St. were listed as witnesses to the incident. Police said the investigation is continuing.

Patrol Cites 2 After Mishap

A Toronto driver and a Carrollton area trucker were cited after their vehicles collided on Route 39 about three miles west of Wellsville Thursday afternoon.

The Ohio Highway Patrol said a 1958 station wagon operated by Ronald Stokes, 35, of 1304 Franklin St., Toronto, was struck by a 1959 semi-trailer rig driven by James Cramblett, 26, of Carrollton R. D. 5. Both were headed west.

Stokes made a left turn into a private drive just as the trucker attempted to pass, officers said. Neither was hurt.

Stokes was charged with failure to signal a turn, and Cramblett was cited for failure to sound his horn to pass. Damage was minor, the patrol said.

A small doe was killed by a car driven by Felix J. Rutecki, 35, of Leetonia R. D. 1 as he was headed south on Route 164 four miles south of Columbiana last night. The deer ran in front of the auto, officers said.

Add interest to that standby spaghetti tomato sauce by allowing Italian sausage (sweet or hot) to contribute flavor. Slice the sausage and brown it in a skillet, then let it simmer in the sauce during the last hour of cooking.

Workers Win $1,000 In Toronto Plant Idea

A suggestion for a $60 piece of equipment to handle tubing has netted $1,000 for two Steubenville employees at the Toronto plant of Titanium Metals Corp. of America, Earl A. Neeb, plant manager, announced.

The award, second largest since TMCA instituted its suggestion system two years ago, was divided between Joseph H. Bennett of Toronto and Theodore F. Sawon of Toronto R. D. 1.

Bennett and Sawon submitted a joint proposal for a simple guide to channel tubes under an electronic probe already in position on the company's tube line. The channel, costing $60, speeds production by automatically directing the tubes to the desired position. It also improves quality since the operator of the testing equipment no longer has to leave his monitor screen to do the job.

Better Health Through Knowledge

MARRIAGE PROBLEM

Q. I know a 20-year-old girl who is considering marriage to her first cousin. Is such a marriage advisable from a medical standpoint?

A. The possibility of hereditary diseases showing up in the children of blood relatives is greater than when the parents are not related. This is due to the fact that a related husband and wife may each carry a "silent" undesirable hereditary trait which was present in their common ancestors. If these persons marry non-relatives, the concealed trait is more likely to remain dormant for many generations without appearing in the children. It should be noted that in some states the marriage of first cousins is prohibited by law.

IMPENDING MENOPAUSE

Q. I am 47 and show signs of the menopause (periods 12 to 25 days apart). Should I consult a doctor or just let nature take her course?

A. You should consult your physician. Such wide variations may or may not be significant but should not be passed off as a normal prelude to the menopause. After an examination the doctor will decide what steps to take.

Where Polls Break Down

In all political contests where polls are used there now are two groups of issues. One group concerns decisions confronting voters when they go to the polls on Election Day.

The other concerns techniques when polls go to voters before Election Day.

The latter group gets hotter sometimes than the political issues—and with good reason. Techniques used by pollsters trying to learn what people think about political candidates have become so deeply involved in campaigning that they now are thoroughly and properly under political discussion.

What is now spoken of as the "opinion research industry" now has come along so far in its evolution it already has the problems of fake pollsters, ranging from burglars to door-to-door salesmen trying to get a foot in the door.

IT APPEARS sometimes that everybody is against polls in politics, except the people willing to pay for them, signifying they have that much confidence in their reliability. This is not, however, entirely true.

Many people who neither use nor pay attention to polls in politics are aware of a vital fact about them neglected by their critics.

The polls do not purport to be able to predict what voters will do on Election Day. They claim only that they are able to reveal what people who may or may not vote on Election Day have to say about candidates and issues at the time they were asked to comment.

Blips That Disappeared

The more we read about the latest shooting incident in Tonkin Gulf, where U.S. military forces possess the superiority they have been unable to develop in South Viet Nam's beleaguered fighting men, the more fascinating its possibilities are.

Here in actual fact was a 1964 preview of the ultimate horror of life in a world that never ceases to be at war.

The U.S. Navy believes it may have scored hits on targets it never saw and whose destruction it cannot confirm. The Navy destroyers that opened fire Sept. 18 had only blips on a radar screen to guide their gunfire. It did not know what the blips represented, but they indicated hostile intent because they were approaching rapidly.

After fire had been opened in this electronic abstraction of warfare, the blips disappeared. This was interpreted to mean the objects they represented must have disappeared, too.

Naturally, the Navy is diffident about making strong claims of hits, and the Defense Department also is aware of the oddity of the situation, but supported by reports from Tass, the Soviet news agency, the Defense Department admits the

It Goes 'Round And 'Round

First reports now are being heard of the opening round of childhood diseases in classrooms.

Subsequent reports will follow in due course and will deal with the whole range of juvenile afflictions—mumps, chicken pox, measles, scarlet fever in a few instances and whatever kind of flu will be going 'round and 'round this year.

The common cold will be common again.

There even will be one or more unnamed afflictions that the doctors will describe vaguely as "virus"—and all this will happen in the normal course of events.

There will be epidemics of pink eye, perhaps. It isn't pleasant to think about in this hygienic era, but school pupils are still exposed to occasional skin contamination. There's not as much of that sort of

Cotton Corners

Dear Nephew: We like your ideas about electronic voting and feel sure the telephone company will be crazy about it, too.

You are before your time, in fact you won't live to see it happen. But someday voters will insert their all-purpose identity cards in a slot in a telephone, dial the Board of Elections, push a button and their votes will be cast and recorded electronically, along with their identity as recorded on the all-purpose cards.

There won't need to be any registration, either. Registration will be permanent and fool-proof, thanks to the all-purpose cards. These will be indestructible plaques, wafer-thin, with coded markings revealing everything it is necessary and proper to know about the bearer—blood type, government registration number, age, occupation, criminal record if any etc.

All record keeping will be automated, so all that will be necessary to find out who anyone is will be to stick his identity card in a slot in the telephone and dial the Board of Permanent Records. Whir, whiz and plop—the information will be available. Credit ratings, credit card status, military records, natural color of hair, dental information—everything will be there in one place.

WHAT APPEALS to me most is the forthcoming application of electronics to voting. Even though some voters with no phones will have to lie themselves to WHERE POLLS break down is the supposition that they are competent to forecast the election outcome.

They do not claim this competency.

It is imputed to them by molders and swayers of public opinion, or disclaimed by critics who must pooh-pooh what some molders and swayers are saying because their own molding and swaying would be undermined.

So what do you want to believe about the 1964 election? Somewhere, someone has a poll that leans the same way.

Dateline Newport

With gambling still flourishing across the river in Hancock County, it's always encouraging to read where such gambling has been erased in other parts of the country.

An article by Edwin A. Lahey of the Chicago Daily News, with a Newport (Ky.) dateline, reviews the extensive cleanup that has been made there.

Mr. Lahey contrasts the law and order at Newport today with the "wide open" situation that prevailed when he made an earlier visit to the Kentucky community a few years ago.

His article contains this paragraph, among others: "... More and more businessmen are now conceding that the 'good old days' really weren't so good."

The Newport story makes it quite clear once more that where there's a will there's a way to get rid of illegal gambling joints.

possibility its Navy sharpshooters may have landed on target.

Was the late George Orwell far off target in "1984" when he spoke of war that had been going on so long no one knew where it was, or what it was about—just belligerents whamming away at each other and claiming victories that turned out victorious?

The Four H's

Members of the 4-H clubs in Columbiana and other counties in the tri-state district will lay aside pet projects for a few days to step on stage and receive deserving recognition for tasks already performed and to help map even more extensive programs for the future.

The occasion will be the beginning of national 4-H Club Week Saturday.

The record of district 4-H activities has been told time and again and speaks for itself.

As part of the 1964-1965 program, 4-H leaders are making every effort to enroll more members in the various clubs. Such membership could be the answer for many of those youngsters who constantly bemoan the fact that they have nothing worthwhile to do with their spare time.

thing as there used to be, and whooping cough and diphtheria are almost as unheard of as smallpox, due to immunization.

But the practice of assembling millions of school children each day and keeping them together is a kind of immunization project in itself, not scientific like the smallpox program or, in recent years, the polio immunization program.

In varying intensities and with varying success, each child is exposed and immunized, usually for life, against subsequent illness from the so called childhood disease. It is part of the experience of normal growing up.

Those who look upon it as an emergency each time it happens simply haven't comprehended how long it has been happening and how well it serves the long-range benefits of preventive medicine.

By Truman Twill

a central place to cast their ballots, telephone voting is indubitably the way it's going to be done someday.

The speed and complexity of the operation will make tampering impossible. No one will be smart enough to figure out how to tamper with it because among the professional engineers other engineers will be set to watching engineers, just as poll workers now watch poll workers.

Because the whole thing will be in charge of technical experts, there will be none of the gamey practices that have frustrated freedom in past years—short pencils in the grubby fists of crooked poll workers, lost ballots, missing ballot boxes, challenged ballots and the like. All this will be forgotten.

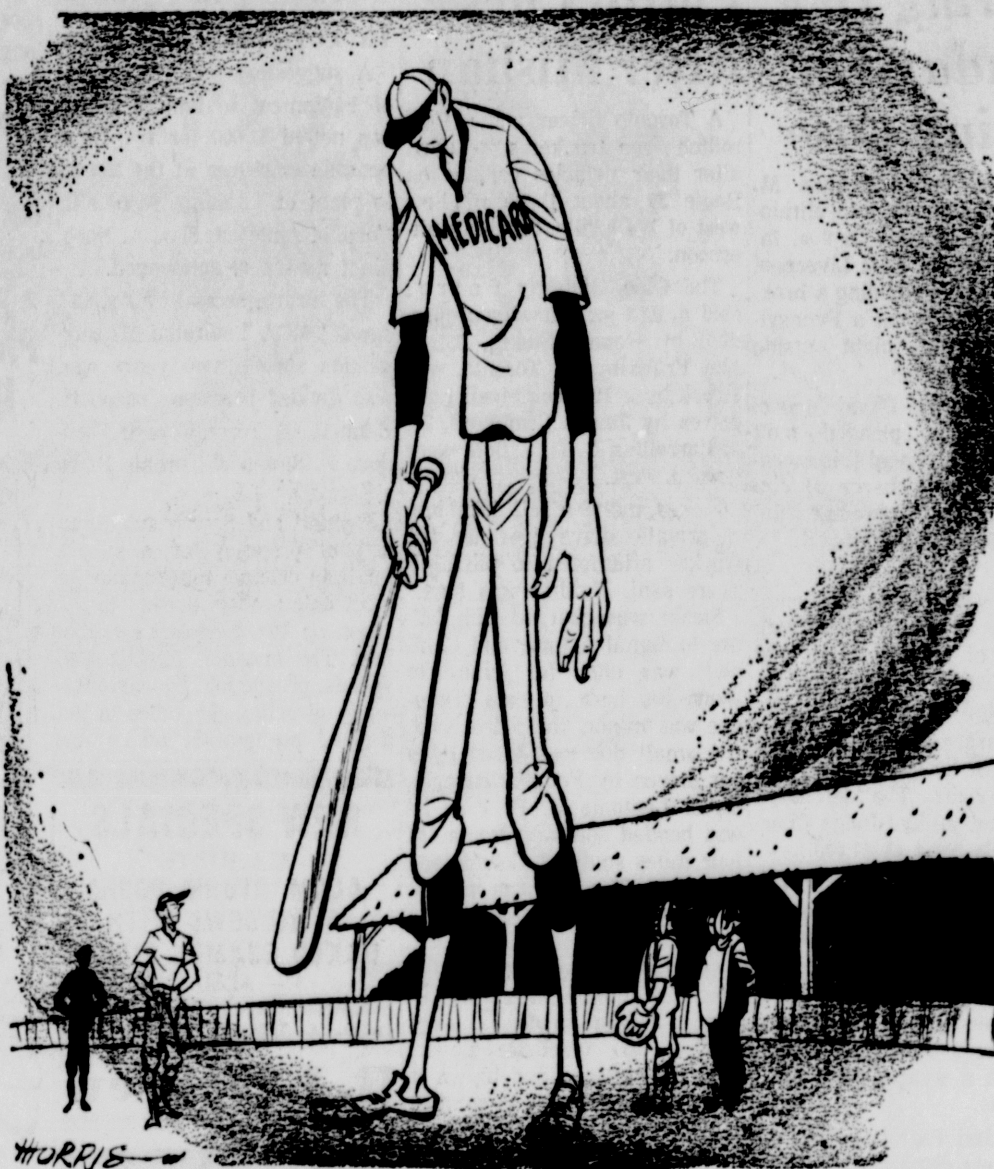

It's simply a matter of freedom's keeping abreast of the times. If big business and big government rely on computers and electronic marvels to keep up with the Joneses, we the people will have to insist that election procedures be brought up to date, too.

IT'S A SHAME you won't see it. You may not miss it more than a few years. You wouldn't miss it by even that little if it weren't for the obstinacy of people with a passion for defending what is and for opposing everything new.

Long before the last fifth of this century, telephonic communication will be so sophisticated and comprehensive that electronic voting will be feasible.

Thousands Of Jobs Go Begging

By Victor Riesel

PITTSBURGH
Thousands of jobs in big steel mills up the line to the Chicago lake area are going begging—I repeat, begging—though they pay over $120 a week and thousands of steel workers are unemployed. Not only are these men jobless—they are running out of public unemployment insurance as well as their private supplemental unemployment benefits paid to them by the firms which had to lay them off some time ago due to lack of orders.

There is no insinuation here that these men don't want to work or that they prefer to go hungry. They want to work—but in their own communities. They refuse to move. They won't leave the cities which have been their home towns for years, though jobs are plentiful elsewhere.

IT ISN'T A MATTER of training or going into a new industry or even to different climes. Mills in the Chicago - Indiana Steel belt have been trying to get Ohio and Pennsylvania steel workers, who had been laid off by plants there, to go west a comparatively few miles and go to work.

All but a handful have refused to leave their neighborhoods.

There is one company, caught up in the terrific new steel outside the industry for manpower. This is Inland Steel, whose executive offices are in Chicago and whose mills are in the Indiana Harbor region.

Inland dispatched some of its personnel people to an Indiana community which had been hard hit by the closing of a once famed, though unsuccessful company not too long ago. Thousands were thrown out of work.

INLAND'S executives believed there was certainly a pool of available workers. The personnel specialists interviewed over 1,000 jobless in the disturbed city.

At the last count only six had agreed to leave their home and settle 80 miles away, though good jobs were offered. But the record is there. Why would the others not pack up and grab the new jobs? They certainly want to work.

Perhaps it is because they are older men who don't fear retraining but who dread leaving the homes in which they've lived since they were married. They are loath to move their children from familiar corners and schools.

The social suction of their clubs and cultural societies hold them to their old soil and side-walks. They take their chances on some future job at home, though the experts here tell me there are 35,000 to 40,000 jobs available in other parts of the country.

THESE JOBS opportunities will increase. Steel is booming. There now is talk of producing 125 million tons this year. That's more steel than any four major nations make today.

It's not only gross tonnage which is making the boom. There are new magical products. There is, for example, a new steel "plate" made by U.S. Steel which is 2,000ths of an inch "thick." It is then coated on one side with tin so it won't rust.

Then it is "pasted" to a paper so cleverly that no one can tell there are really three elements which look like paper, feel like paper, and be used for wrapping like paper but which make a bug proof and almost puncture proof material. Its production will also make jobs.

New products, new prosperity. U.S. Steel is now field testing a special type of wire for snow tires. The steel threads, looking like thin barbed wire, are put into the rubber and give the tires terrific traction on snow and ice.

THERE ALSO is a new steel door which can be made to look like wood. It won't warp in hot weather and could replace millions of wooden doors.

There is a new type of steel "siding." It has been developed so it can be nailed like shingles over wooden houses—and there are 20 million such frame homes in America which can use such steel covers looking much like new wood.

There are other companies with other wizardries. Making these products will require manpower—and yet available workers are becoming scarce amid heavy unemployment.

What then is the nature of unemployment? What will happen to the men in the pockets of poverty who cling to their homesteads? Who can deny that right to a man? Yet who will support him when he runs out of benefits—public and private?

High-Minded Discussion Of Issues Urged

Presidential campaigns are, unfortunately, based on the assumption that the people are "too damn dumb to understand"—as the late Harry Hopkins, adviser to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, was alleged to have expressed it during New Deal days.

Nothing could be farther from a true analysis of the reaction of the people. It isn't the average man who is incapable of making a fair judgment on the real issues when they are presented. The trouble is, rather, that those in a position to influence public opinion often become so involved in their own passions and prejudices they produce statements and speeches which serve not merely to confuse the voter but actually to mislead him.

The other day a certified public accountant in New York, with admitted cynicism, wrote this correspondent suggesting a new glossary of terms for the campaign:

Justified civil disobedience — a demonstration by my side.

Defiance of the law — a demonstration by your side.

Mainstream — the current of my thought.

Moderate — like me.

Extremist — one who fervently believes what I fervently disbelieve.

Who can be satisfied with the kind of campaign being conducted today? Is it right to impugn the integrity of either candidate?

Granted that no man in politics has been without sin in the many conflicts of interest that arise, can it be implied that either of the men running for the presidency today would not be conscious of the difference between right and wrong in the conduct of the highest office in the land?

WHY IS IT necessary to go back into the lives of the candidates and seek out something adverse that can be charged by using the device of guilt by association?

What possible difference does it make how many crackpots either man has among his followers?

What possible cause is served by calling one man an "extremist" and the other a "man without ethics"?

Why is it necessary in politics to assume that a candidate's integrity must be attacked by innuendo or inference or that his mental qualities must be portrayed as defective because he differs sharply with his opponent on major issues? Why, for instance, have the politicians felt they had to depict Barry Goldwater as a "trigger happy" man who would deliberately or unwittingly get us into a nuclear war? This kind of campaigning will remain as a blot on the record of the political managers who assumed the people would be too dumb to recognize such a political "gimmick."

Why is it necessary to assume President Johnson would halfheartedly enforce the "civil rights" law because he voted a few years ago on the other side of the issue?

Conversely, why is it assumed that a sincere man like the Republican nominee is trying to form a "white man's party" and wouldn't enforce the "civil rights" law because he voted against it on the ground he considered it unconstitutional?

These innuendoes are fed to the people by experienced manipulators of political campaigns, both inside and outside of Congress.

THE CANDIDATES themselves are not free from blame. They continually predict that the other fellow's policies will bring disaster, while their own will bring Utopia.

Both candidates are trying to cover too much ground and are not clearly bringing out the merits or demerits of particular issues—not only on the international but on the national side, particularly as they bear on the economic life of this country.

The main thing in which the average man is interested is whether "good times" are ahead or whether the nation is going to suffer another setback as it did after the long period of prosperity in the 1920s.

The voter wants to know what changes in public policy will bring economic advancement on a sound basis.

He wants to know what changes in foreign policy will bring an assurance of peace and why the war in Viet Nam is being fought.

There are lots of issues that can be explained in simple form by both candidates so the voter will really be able to make his own judgment as to whether this is or is not a time to change administrations.

It isn't too late to clean up the campaign and produce a high-minded discussion of the real issues to be faced by the American people when they make a choice.

Amazing Turnabout

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON
There's one thing you've heard almost absolutely nothing about in the presidential campaign so far. That's this present Congress, which has done one of the most amazing turnabouts in history.

But you can expect to hear plenty about it from the Democrats, who run Congress, and President Johnson, who needed it into an extremely impressive record, when this session ends.

In 1963—the first half of the two-year session—this was the greatest collection of congressional dawdlers since 1940 when President Roosevelt got fed up with the Congress he had to deal with.

He blamed its wretched performance on "good-fellowship" in a letter to the then speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn, who died in 1961, and the present speaker, John McCormack, who was then the Democratic majority leader.

"What I want to get across to both of you before the next session begins is that good-fellowship alone, an easy life to avoid criticism, and acceptance of defeat before an issue has been joined, make, all of them, less for party success and for national safety than a few drag-down and knock-out fights and an unwillingness to accept defeat without a fight."

President Truman helped get himself elected in 1948 when he denounced the Republican-run Congress that year as a "do-nothing" Congress. But it was not all that bad and was far superior to the 1963 session of this Congress.

There was a gentle and gentlemanly attitude about Congress last year. And President Kennedy, whose vital programs were being ignored, was one of the gentlest in dealing with both House and Senate.

As soon as he moved into the White House Johnson began using his skills on the tardy, lackadaisical lawmakers that he had learned in 23 years in House and Senate, seven of them as Democratic leader in the Senate.

At the time of his death two of Kennedy's most important bills—a tax cut and civil rights—were just unfinished business. He had never been able to be harsh with Congress. He called the failure to get action "unfortunate."

But in an astonishingly short time Johnson began to get action.

Before the end of last February, Congress passed the tax measure, an $11.5-billion cut in personal and corporate income, the biggest in history.

In early July Congress, after an 83-day Senate battle, passed the most far-reaching civil rights bill in history.

Thursday the Senate passed a foreign aid authorization bill after adopting a compromise solution to its long controversy over legislative reapportionment.

The aid bill now goes to a Senate-House conference committee to iron out differences between the two houses. This shouldn't be hard.

Also Thursday another House-Senate committee—to reconcile differences—agreed to a bill broadening and expanding the National Defense Education Act.

There is even a slim possibility that before this Congress finishes it will have passed some kind of program—linked to Social Security—of medical care for the aged. This seemed impossible last year and for most of this one.

Council Gives Midland Fire Service $500

Midland Council Thursday voted its annual $500 donation to the borough volunteer fire department.

Council turned over to Atty. Frank Suffoletta, solicitor, a request from the Midland Human Relations Commission that it be made permanent by ordinance.

Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, borough secretary, read an invitation from Beaver County commissioners for members of the Council to attend a meeting Wednesday at the Beaver County Home and Hospital, when a representative of the U.S. Department of Labor will discuss the possible formation of various Youth Corps in the county.

The Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 provides for these corps for youths 16 to 21, who are high school dropouts, or unemployed.

A committee to study the possible installation of a TV cable system in Midland will meet next week, at a date to be set, with representatives of companies interested in providing the service.

Bills were ordered paid. William Vinovich, president, presided. The next meeting will be Oct. 8.

London Hunt Pushed For Two Ohio Girls

LONDON (AP) — Police have intensified a search for two girls from Cleveland, Ohio, reported to have followed the Beatles to Britain, but Scotland Yard says it has received no word of the missing teen-agers.

The girls — Martha Schendel and Janice Hawkins, both 16 — disappeared from their homes Wednesday night after attending a performance by the Beatles in Cleveland the night before, and they were reported to have taken a plane to New York and then transferred to a flight to London.

County Forest Fire Wardens Are Assigned

The district office of the Ohio Division of Forestry at New Philadelphia announced today that the fall forest fire season begins next Thursday and continues through November.

Abundant summer rains have produced a lush growth of vegetation and the first frost will convert the summer's growth into a highly flammable fuel. All Columbiana County residents are urged to use extreme caution with fires kindled out-of-doors.

Some townships of the county are included in the Division of Forestry's organized forest fire protection area.

In these townships a permit is required for kindling any fire in the open outside of incorporated towns and villages during October, November, March, April and May. Permits may be obtained from the Local forest fire wardens.

Listed below are the townships included in the organized forest fire protection area and the wardens for each:

Center — Thomas Senanefes, 863 Washington St., Lisbon.

Elkrun — Deane L. Price and Lawrence H. Baker, Lisbon R. D. 5, and Olin H. Evans, Box 53, Elkton.

Franklin — Carl N. Blake, Hanover R. D. 1, and Paul Crawford, Kensington R. D. 1. Hanover — Nellie Strahm, Hanover R. D. 1; Leland E. Falon, Hanover; Walter J. Burick and R. Max Gard, Lisbon R. D. 4, and Roy N. Painter, Box 133, Hanover.

Liverpool — John O. Gilson, East Liverpool; Harry C. Smith, Dixonville, and Homer L. Cronin, 2117 LaCroft St.

Madison — Stanley and Veronica Wolski, Lisbon R. D. 2; Hugh W. Jack, Wellsville, and Charles R. Heffner, Scotch Settlement.

Middleton — Veda Cope, Box 147, Rogers; J. V. Mackell and Donald H. Williams, Rogers R. D. 1; Glenn Rhodes, Box 181, Rogers; Richard E. Sloum, Box 156, Negley, and Donald C. Mahon, Negley R. D. 1.

2 In District Graduate From Nurse Training

Miss Mary Ellen Stoffel, daughter of Donald W. Stoffel of Line St., Chester, and the late Mary Godwin Stoffel, and Mrs. Betty Adkins Orovitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Adkins of Sprucevale Rd., were among the 1964 class of the Youngstown Hospital Association School of Nursing, which was graduated in exercises last week at Stambaugh Auditorium.

Miss Stoffel, a 1961 graduate of East Liverpool High School, received a cash award from the Women's Board of the hospital for the "highest scholastic achievement," and Mrs. Orovitz was named recipient of the Frank Purnell Memorial Foundation Award.

Mrs. Orovitz has accepted a position on the staff of North Side Hospital in Youngstown, and Miss Stoffel has begun duties at City Hospital.

Church Project Completed

Synod Executive Due At Chester Dedication

The Rev. John H. Strock, D.D., of Parkersburg, field representative of the Synod of West Virginia, will be guest speaker for the memorial dedication service of the newly-furnished sanctuary of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Chester Sunday at 4 p. m. His topic will be "The Blessedness of Holy Aspiration."

The extensive renovation program included new carpet and pews and oak paneling on the base boards and chancel. Several new memorial gifts have also been presented in memory of deceased members by families and friends.

Rev. Strock, a native of Alintown, N. J., received his B.A. degree from Washington & Jefferson College in Washington, Pa.; B.Th. degree from Princeton (N.J.) Theological Seminary, and his doctorate from Davis & Elkins College in Elkins, W. Va.

He is the chief administrative officer in West Virginia for the national missions work of the United Presbyterian Church within the state, serving also as a Board of Christian Education field director. In addition, Rev. Strock has Synod and Presbytery executive duties.

Prior to assuming his present position, Dr. Strock was pastor of the Oak Lane Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia. At one time, he was pastor of the Stone church in Wheeling and began his ministry as assistant pastor

32 Attend Airing Of Drink Sale To Salem Juveniles

LISBON — Thirty-two persons, including pastors, attorneys, representatives of various organizations, school officials, tavern owners, Mayor Dean Crammer and Police Chief Marty Lutsch attended a meeting this morning in Juvenile Court, called by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin to discuss the recent rash of Salem juveniles coming into his court as the result of drinking intoxicating liquor.

The group discussed possible ways the juveniles under 18 are obtaining the intoxicants and the responsibility of the tavern operator to prevent the youths from getting the beer and liquor.

Judge Tobin said it is up to each bar operator to "police" his establishment and if he observes another not obeying the law he should warn the offender.

A suggestion was adopted requiring all young people to sign an affidavit as to age, along with evidence of identification such as driver's license or draft card. If it is found out later the patron was a juvenile, then the tavern operator with the identification slip would not be cited, Judge Tobin said.

Goldwater's press secretary, Paul F. Wagner, said the senator skipped the remarks inadvertently in the speech because the passage was not on the Teleprompter he used.

In his undelivered Boston remarks, which had been handed to newsmen as a last-minute insert into his speech, Goldwater also said Kennedy "was one of my close friends in the Senate."

"Although I often disagreed with him, I always respected him," Goldwater said of the assassinated president from Boston. "Until his successor takes action to clean up the White House I can't say the same thing for him, at all."

Married Man, Girl Arrested

Two Wellsville officers and a Juvenile Officer James Miller early today arrested a 32-year-old Wellsville man and a young Hammondsville area girl the officers said were planning to leave together for Arizona today.

Joseph Thompson of Wellsville and the 16-year-old girl from Jefferson County, and two of his young children, were picked up by the officers at a motel in Strasburg in Tuscarawas County after a lengthy investigation into their whereabouts.

Police Chief John Hephner said his department received information Thursday morning that a married man from Wellsville had picked up a 16-year-old juvenile girl and were to leave for Arizona today.

Patrolman Ed James started work on tracking down the pair at 8 a. m. Thursday, and Captain Pete Trainer joined him at 4 p. m., along with Miller.

The officers received information that the couple would be at Beech City in Stark County, but questioning there led them to the Townhouse Motel in Tuscarawas County, where the local officers, and a Tuscarawas officer, found them in a room with two of Thompson's young children, police said.

Patrolman James and Capt. Trainer returned home at 4 a. m. today. The couple and the youngsters were being held by Tuscarawas County officials and are to be returned to Columbiana County for hearings before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

Nation's Farmers Hoping For Relief From Drought

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's farmers have moved into the fall harvest season hoping for relief from a late-season drought that already has cost nearly $300 million in crop damage, an Associated Press survey shows.

Some farmers compared the summer of 1964 with the dust bowl days of the dry mid-1930s. Many states reported the summer as the driest on record.

A state-by-state survey today indicated that the most heavily damaged crops were corn, soybeans, sorghum and wheat. Many unharvested fruit crops were expected to suffer later this fall, and agriculture officials estimate the total drought loss will exceed the $500 million.

The worst drought areas were in the eastern section of the country, with Connecticut, Pennsylvania and New York among the hardest hit. Lack of water has dried up thousands of pastures, resulting in heavy losses for dairy farmers in the East and Middle West.

And silos throughout the country were empty or near empty, lacking livestock fodder for the winter.

Here's a sectional rundown of conditions in states hit hardest:

EAST
Pennsylvania — a farm loss expected to total $50 million with income in northeastern part of the state off as much as 50 per cent. 1964 third straight drought year, and corn, potatoes and apple crops especially hurt. Dairy industry also suffered heavily. Eleven northeastern counties designated drought disaster areas.

New Jersey — Crop loss in corn, hay and vegetable crops could total $11.5 million. Birds eating crops because their natural feed dried up. Sixteen of 21 counties in state declared eligible for drought relief loans.

Connecticut — Drought second or third worst since 1900, with rainfall averaging three inches below normal. Vegetable crop loss estimated at between $100,000 and $200,000, with more losses expected in peach and apple crops.

New York — Drought hitting pastures and hay crop resulting in critical dairy farm situation. No estimate of loss available, but 27 counties declared disaster emergency areas. Milk industry hit hardest, down $10 million to $20 million. Pasture conditions worst in history.

West Virginia — Severe drought conditions in parts of state with 10 counties declared disaster areas. Eastern counties hardest hit.

Massachusetts — Hay hardest hit, down 10 per cent from five-year average. Cranberries also affected.

Vermont — Five southern counties declared disaster areas because of drought. Hay in trouble, 75 per cent of normal.

North Carolina — Three counties disaster areas because of June drought. No serious fires or serious flooding.

Virginia — Drought relief aid granted to 28 counties. Grazing and haying privileges granted to

3 Men Fined, 2 Forfeit In Traffic Cases

Three motorists were fined today in Municipal Court for violation of traffic laws and two others forfeited appearance bonds.

Glenn Clifford Hall, 1908 Nevada St., Wellsville, was fined $10 and costs by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after pleading "no contest" to a State Highway Patrol charge of operating a truck without a taillight. He was cited Sunday on Route 7.

The judge noted the patrol's arrest report showed Hall's 1953 model truck also had no turn signals, no brake lights and only one windshield wiper. He ordered Hall to have the defects corrected.

Larry G. Osbourne of New Cumberland was fined $10 and costs on a charge of operating an auto with an expired temporary plate. He was cited Thursday at 1:05 p.m. on St. George St. by Patrolman Orin Smith.

Osborne told the judge his proper license plates arrived yesterday from the West Virginia Registrar of Motor Vehicles — after he had been cited. He said he filed the application for the tags "several months ago" after buying the auto.

FAMILY OF STARS. The three Fondas, rarely together due to film chores, meet and talk things over in New York. They are Henry, daughter Jane and son Peter.

9th Ave., LaCroft, was fined $10 and costs after he was convicted on a charge of crashing traffic lights on State Route 267 at LaCroft and at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts. He was cited by the patrol Sept. 18 and pleaded not guilty at arraignment Monday. The judge suspended the fine on payment of costs.

Glen Albert Smith, 22, of 1510 Commerce St., Wellsville, forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on the East Liverpool - Wellsville "super-road." He was cited by the patrol Sept. 10 at 6:35 a.m.

A $32.50 appearance bond also was forfeited by Carolyn A. Burdick, 21, of Greenville, S.C., cited by the patrol Wednesday at 10:15 p.m. on Route 30 on a charge of speeding 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

A hearing is due Tuesday morning for Robert Dean Golladay, 48, of Rogers, cited by the patrol Thursday at 11:30 p.m. on a charge of speeding 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the "super - road." The same charge faces William Cataldo, 1702 Nevada St., Wellsville, who was cited on the same stretch by the patrol at 6 a.m. today.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Friday, Sept. 25, the 269th day of 1964. There are 97 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1789, Congress submitted to the states 12 amendments to the Constitution, forming a Bill of Rights. Those adopted became the first 10 amendments.

On this date:
In 1690, the first newspaper printed in America, "Publick Occurrences," was issued by Benjamin Harris of Boston. Colonial authorities suppressed it immediately.

In 1775, the hero of Ticonderoga Ethan Allen, was captured by the British and Indians as he led an attack on Montreal.

In 1942, the United States ordered nationwide gasoline rationing.

Ten years ago—Japan signed a reparations agreement with Burma, the first pace between Japan and the nations she had attacked in World War II.

Five years ago — Prime Minister Bandaranaike of Ceylon was assassinated by a Buddhist monk.

One year ago — Dominican Republic military leaders overthrew the government of President Juan Bosch.

$7,500 Slated As Budget In Lisbon Drive

LISBON — Lisbon Community Chest trustees adopted a 1965 budget of $7,500 Wednesday afternoon at Village Hall.

Nine agencies will share in the proceeds of the annual campaign which will open Monday, Oct. 5, at 8:30 a.m. with a kickoff breakfast at the Wick Hotel.

Charles Faust of the budget committee announced the following allocations based on attainment of the $7,500 goal:

Boy Scouts, $2,000; Camp Fire Girls, $1,175; Salem City Hospital, $1,100; Salvation Army, $900; Lisbon Junior Baseball Association, $650; Lisbon Youth Association, $600; Salem Central Clinic, $450; Salem Hospital School of Practical Nursing, $250; Lisbon Y-Teens, $125, and Chest Fund operating expenses, $250.

The Firestone Bank and the National Bank will finance the kickoff breakfast for all fund workers. R. Dale Miller will be speaker.

Trustees were asked to name their captains immediately and give the names to Mrs. James Horger, secretary, so breakfast reservations may be made.

Community Chest posters will be placed in business places next week, along with craft displays of the Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

Officers said the trustees yesterday approved a slate of three new trustees, but they have not been approached to learn if they will serve.

The next board meeting will be Thursday, Oct. 15 at 3:30 p.m. in Village Hall.

Both Drivers Injured In Ohioville Collision

Mrs. Patricia Liberatore of Midland and Walter Baldwin, 46 of Darlington, R. D. 2 were treated in the emergency room of Rochester General Hospital this morning for injuries received in a traffic accident in the Ohioville area about 10.

Mrs. Liberatore was treated for a laceration of the head and Baldwin for an abrasion of the right knee.

Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich of Ohioville Borough was investigating. The mishap apparently involved two autos.

City Youth Injured In Columbus Mishap

Keith D. Smith, son of Mrs. Alta Smith, 133 Kountz Ave., a junior at Ohio State University in Columbus was in "good" condition today at Riverside Methodist Hospital in Columbus with injuries suffered in a motor-scooter mishap.

He suffered a fractured skull and shoulder early Sunday morning when the scooter he was driving slipped and he hit the pavement. A 1961 graduate of East Liverpool High School, he is majoring in journalism.

Auto Workers Strike Plants In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Members of the United Auto Workers Union were on strike at two plants in greater Cleveland today.

UAW Local 1250 members walked out at the Ford Motor Co.'s Engine Plant No. 1 in the Brook Park early today a few hours after some 300 employees at the Fisher Body Plant on Colt Road staged Thursday night what UAW Local 45 called a wildcat strike.

More than 3,000 production employees were idled by the Fisher Body walkout as workers on the midnight shift Thursday night and the first day shift today refused to report for work. The Ford strike reportedly involved the suspension of a union committeeman. Picket lines were established at the plant and workers reporting for the day shift were turned back. A huge traffic jam resulted.

Representatives of Ford and the UAW reached agreement in Detroit on a new national contract last Friday, but several local issues remain to be solved.

Walking off the job at the Fisher body plant were employees of the trim shop. They are among 15,000 UAW members in this area to have been instructed to strike at 11 a.m. today in the absence of a national contract agreement between the union and General Motors Corp. Negotiations are being conducted in Detroit.

No reason for the walkout was given, but a company spokesman said the workers apparently were displeased with the progress of the Detroit negotiations.

Jo Anne Persohn Becomes Bride Of Roy Andrew Dray

A queen's crown of lace petals and seed pearls complemented her gown of peau de soie when Miss Jo Anne Persohn became the bride of Roy Andrew Dray the afternoon of Sept. 12 at 2:30 o'clock in the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Persohn of the Campground Rd., and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Dray of Michigan Ave.

The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, minister, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of white mums, ferns, palms and candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews.

Mrs. Jessie Hall Kaufman, church organist, presented a half-hour recital of wedding music. Acolytes were William Persohn and Thomas Persohn, brothers of the bride, and David Persohn, her cousin.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her floor-length gown was fashioned with a controlled front skirt and chapel sweep train. The fitted bodice, designed with long-pointed sleeves, featured re-embroidered lace medallions with set-in midriff effect at the waistline.

Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was elbow-length. She carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of small white orchids and satin streamers tied in lovers' knots, centered with a large white orchid. All the familiar traditions were observed.

Miss Janet Reed was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Ferguson, cousin of the bride, and Miss Martha Persohn, her sister. They wore dresses of gold-color antique satin made by the bride's mother. Matching headpieces and shoes completed their costumes.

Their single-strand pearls were gifts of the bride. They carried Colonial bouquets of bronze and yellow mums with yellow rosebuds in that of the maid of honor.

Richard Feldman served as best man. Ushers were John Persohn, brother of the bride, Clyde Null, Karl Kontner and Bert Dawson. Along with the acolytes, they received tie clasps from the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride chose a sheath of royal blue silk with black accessories and the bride-

Alex Kidd Named New President Of Kiwanis

Alex Kidd of Fisher Ave., co-owner of the Keystone Printing Co., was elevated to president of the Kiwanis Club at a meeting Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Kidd, who was first vice president, succeeds Norman Nicely. Other officers elected were James Walker, first vice president; Roy Cooper, second vice president, and Harry George, treasurer.

Directors named were Frank Irving, Fred Bright, the Rev. John Clark and David Kennedy. Incumbent members are Glenn Hall, Joe Prager, Glenn V. Wilson and Robert Wells.

Kidd, a 33rd Degree Mason, has been active in various community affairs. He is president of the Board of Trustees at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church and a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Kidd is also on the Board of Trustees at the YMCA, a post he has held for several years. His wife is the former Helen Eardley.

Fifteen members of the Pony League All-Star team, along with the League officials and aides, were guests at the meeting at which awards were presented.

Each member of the team received a small trophy from the club and a baseball autographed by the Cleveland Indians baseball team.

The trophies were presented by Ray Flint, team manager.

ALEX KIDD
Succeeds Norman Nicely.

Allen Montgomery, league president, spoke and presented a trophy to Don Hancock for his past work in the league.

Bob Bartram, player agent, and Charles Campbell, Woodbine team official, also gave remarks.

Roy Cooper, Kiwanis representative on the league board, described the league's development since it was founded 10 years ago with the club as sponsor, Merrill Hall and the late Ed Dopler being primarily responsible.

Humphrey Likely To Shift Campaign Into Lower Gear

NEW YORK (AP) — With almost six weeks to go to election day, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey reportedly is considering putting his campaign into lower gear.

Many Democratic strategists say it's hitting too fast a pace for this early in the campaign.

Humphrey, President Johnson's running-mate, steers his campaign today to Michigan, after a day of speeches and handshaking on the crowded streets of New York Thursday.

Cheering thousands stalled his motorcade on Fifth Avenue for about half an hour.

Stops in Michigan were scheduled at Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Bay City and Flint.

At Kalamazoo, Humphrey declared in a talk prepared for Western Michigan University that "the pioneers of this nation were not content with the old — they sought the new on the farthest reaches of our continent."

"The American dream was not conceived in the conscience of conservatives but in the hope of visionaries," he said.

Humphrey praised "the vigor and excellence of the administration" and said, "let us continue to tame the atom and to explore the stars."

Thursday night, the Minnesota senator formally accepted the New York State Liberal party's nomination for vice president. The party's votes have decided elections in New York State in the past.

He said the Liberal party was founded in 1944 "because you would not tolerate Communist extremism in the liberal movement."

The Liberal party, which exists only in New York State, was an off-shoot of the old American Labor party.

In 1960 its 406,000 votes gave the late President John F. Kennedy a margin to carry the state against Republican Richard M. Nixon.

It usually nominates Democrats, especially for high office, sometimes Republicans, whom it has helped get elected, and occasionally runs candidates of its own.

Acid Corrosion from Gasoline!

You probably have corroded valve lifters like these in your car right now. Ordinary gasoline can't prevent this acid corrosion.

Unretouched photos of valve lifters from cars using ordinary gasoline, in normal driving conditions. When new, these valve lifters were bright and shiny. See what acid from the gasoline has done.

THE NEW BORON

makes this big difference in valve lifter corrosion because it eliminates the formation of hydrochloric acid!

IDENTICAL VALVE LIFTERS

RUN ON ORDINARY GASOLINE

RUN ON THE NEW BORON

Compare! Two shiny new valve lifters were placed in identical engines, and run the same length of time under identical conditions. The only difference was in the gasoline. Look at the corrosion caused by ordinary gasoline (left). The New Boron valve lifter (right) shows much less corrosion because hydrochloric acid has been eliminated.

When your engine burns ordinary gasoline, corrosive acids are formed as by-products. These acids eat away at valve lifters, crankshafts and other vital parts.

Motor oils are designed to help protect your engine against acid corrosion—but they can't do the whole job. In fact, engineers point out that acid corrosion is actually increasing in today's cars because of modern engine design.

Sohio science has gone straight to the source of the problem. Sohio has developed a new gasoline, actually made in a different way, to drastically reduce acid formation. The New Boron contains a unique Anti-Knock Compound that totally eliminates hydrochloric acid, one of the most common and most corrosive engine acids! You can see for yourself the big difference The New Boron makes in acid corrosion in the comparison photos above. Of course, you cannot expect to remove corrosion that already exists in your engine, but if you start using The New Boron today, further corrosive action will be greatly reduced.

Special Notice to Owners of Late-Model Cars—Almost all cars since 1963 have been equipped with special crankcase ventilating systems which recirculate acid-carrying fumes back into the engine. If you drive a late-model car, The New Boron will be of particular benefit to you.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY

You need The New Boron now . . . for these three important benefits. 1 Exclusive Valve Cleaner. Reduces valve deposits. 2 Unique Anti-Knock Compound. Eliminates formation of hydrochloric acid. 3 Double Protection for Carburetor. Super Filtered purity, plus Carburetor Cleaner.

Out Of The Air

By RICHARD K. DOAN
Another 'District Attorney'

A latter-day TV descendant of radio's immensely popular and long-running "Mr. District Attorney" is being cooked up by NBC. It apparently is aimed at those audiences that date on such weekly fictions as "The Defenders" and "Perry Mason," both garnering Richard Doan high ratings for another network. NBC's new entry, entitled "Indictment," will dramatize a district attorney's life—and the setting will be New York City.

THE SERIES will be filmed in Manhattan, and its star may be Robert Ryan.

That's the plot. So far it's a pilot deal, aimed at the 1965-66 season.

The giant Universal (Revue) studios, which crank out much of NBC's prime-time fare (i.e., "The Virginians," "Suspense Theater," Alfred Hitchcock's and Bob Hope's and Jack Benny's series), will make the sample episode of the proposed show.

NBC also has contracted with Universal to film another hour-long dramatic pilot called "Convo," a World War II sea action vehicle which NBC officials are characterizing as the "Wagon Train" of the high seas.

JOHN GAVIN is being considered for the starring role in this one. His last series was ABC's short-lived "Destiny."

Robert Ryan, reached at his midtown apartment in New York, replied when asked if he had been signed for the district attorney role in "Indictment": "We're very close. It will be settled some time this week."

The actor appears in growing demand these days.

He currently is narrating CBS' ambitious 26-week documentary on "World War I," which made its debut last Wednesday. He'll be seen portraying Abraham Lincoln in CBS's "The Presidency: A Splendid Misery."

RYAN, HOWEVER, is somewhat mystified by reports that he is being sought by Keefe Braselle as one of three stars for a proposed CBS dramatic series titled "The Loop."

Braselle, the entertainment-turned-producer of CBS' new "Cora Williams Show," "Bailiffs of Balboa" and "The Reporter," announced recently that a pilot for "The Loop," dealing with the adventures of two Chicago policemen and a lawyer, will be filmed in Chicago in November. He said he'd like to get Ryan for the lawyer's role.

Ryan said Braselle has never so much as approached him. And obviously he couldn't do that series if he is going to star in "Indictment."

ONE OF TV's wags suggested this week that Barry Goldwater's campaign manager has an inside tip on what NBC's "That Was the Week That Was" plans to say about their candidate and they're going to keep it off the air if they have to buy the time to do so.

Be that as it may, the Republican National Committee sought to buy a second week of the "TW-3" time. The network first accepted, then decided to refuse to postpone the programs fall premiere a second time.

The weekly news satire was to return to the air last Tuesday night but was preempted for a paid GOP political telecast featuring a filmed conversation between the Republican nominee and former President Eisenhower.

"TW-3's" delayed premiere time next Tuesday at 9:30 p.m. was then sought by the GOP.

Next Tuesday's edition of "TW" is scheduled to carry a one-minute campaign announcement for the Democrats in behalf of President Johnson's candidacy.

NBC turned down the Republican purchase of the full half hour on the grounds that the Democrats had a priority in buying the minute spot, a spokesman said.

Train Whistle Turned Into Alarm For Fire

CHICAGO (AP) — A motorman turned his train whistle into a fire alarm Thursday, arousing sleeping residents of a burning apartment.

Paul Bagato, 51, of suburban Cicero, saw flames whipping out of a bedroom window when his elevated train passed about 5 a.m.

He stopped the train and yanked the whistle cord for several minutes. Lights went on all over the neighborhood.

Bagato then moved the train to the next stop and telephoned the fire department, which put out the flames.

Bringing Up Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

New Approach To Teaching Reading

In earlier columns I pointed out that many teachers throughout the United States are not permitting children in the early grades to take their reading books home with them. I noted that the chief reason is that the teachers believe that if children take these books home, their Dr. Garry Myers parents might use them in ways that would hamper the interest and progress of the child.

It so happens that most children of our nation are taught to read at school from a series of basic readers. Each series has a manual for the teacher, whereby she must follow certain prescribed ways to further the success of the child reading from these books. Each book, from the primer onward, has a limited number of words. The child's success requires that he master the words in the primer before going on to the first reader, and so on. Each book uses the words of the earlier book and adds only a limited number of new words.

A NEW publication, for educators and teachers of reading, questions the merit of depending primarily on basic readers for helping children learn to read. Its title is "Educator's Guide to Personalized Reading Instruction" (Prentice Hall), now in its fifth printing. Its author is Walter Barbe, Ph.D., Associate Editor of Highlights For Children. For a number of years, until recently, he was Professor of Special Education and Department Chairman, Kent State University, Kent, Ohio.

From Dr. Barbe's book, and from talking with him, I gather the following:

Children can learn to read without using the readers, which have been so popular with educators for the past twenty-five years. In many elementary schools throughout the country, teachers have found that using the readers has taught children how to read, but unfortunately has done little toward developing, in the child any real desire for reading.

It is just not possible that any single book could contain enough good stories so that they would be interesting to all children throughout the country.

THE READERS have attempted to do this, and at the same time control the vocabulary in such a way that the child is presented only with words supposed to be exactly at his level and repeated an exact number of times. Too often the final result has been collections of stories without meaning or interest.

A new approach to reading is being tried in a number of places throughout the country, known as "individualized" or "personalized" reading. Children are allowed to choose from a wide selection of the books which they want to read. The teacher still teaches the same reading skills, including phonics, that are taught using the readers.

Children are grouped for instruction in certain skills, or when they are reading the same book. Once the particular purpose is accomplished, the group is done away with.

No longer are children labeled "bluebirds" or by the name of the book they are reading. The main difference is that children read what they want to read, and progress at their own rate—without being called dumb when they don't make progress as fast as another child.

HOW IS this new plan working? In situations in which good teachers who love reading are in charge, the children are learning to read as fast or faster than they did in the reader and are learning early to love to read. Reports of having read thirty, forty and fifty books in the school year are not uncommon. The enthusiasm which these children have for reading is the big difference.

Not all teachers can use this new approach, but fortunate indeed is the child whose teacher knows that learning how to read is not enough. An interest and enthusiasm for reading is the final goal of the good teacher.

My bulletins, "Helping Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading" and "Home Helps for Poor Readers I & II," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Commissioners O.K. Travel Expenses Of 2

You can feel a little unusual talking to a machine all day . . .

A message to 1 out of every 10 telephone subscribers in the East Liverpool, Wellsville and Northern Hancock County exchanges—and all advertisers.

Last week, WOHI hired a local church women's group to make a survey. In true cloak-and-dagger style, we kept them from knowing who hired them, our contact man sending unsigned letters, cutting through alleys, dealing only with the minister, who in turn, talked with the committee in charge.

The women's motive? To raise funds. We paid 10c per call.
Our motive? To find out how you like us.

We don't like being called to the phone for a survey either, but it's the only way we could find out. Until we can read minds, telephone polls just have to happen.

For any inconvenience we may have caused, our apologies.
But how happy we are that we called you.

In these days, when the world often is so insecure, it's great to have friends!

Folks in our area like WOHI more than all other Radio Stations Combined!

Here are the Statistics:

From 6-9 AM, when the greatest number of all homes have a radio on, an astounding SEVENTY-FOUR percent of the folks listening to radio were tuned to WOHI, and the Bill Holden entertainment—Paul Zehnder News team.

From 9-noon, when folks are at work, and kids are in school, FIFTY-SIX percent of the listeners are hearing WOHI, and Barbara and Joe.

From Noon to Three, it's lunch, nap, shop and housework time, yet FORTY-EIGHT POINT FIVE percent of the radios playing are playing on 1490 for Noon News, Paul Harvey, Remember When, Kelly's Corner, and Barbara.

From Three to Six, Holden's Back . . . with FIFTY-TWO percent of the audience.

From Six to Midnight, Stu Wilson has FIFTY-FIVE POINT FIVE percent of the listeners—except when there's local football. Then we have SEVENTY-FIVE percent.

BUT—the survey cost us more than we bargained for.
We've lost our inferiority complex.

Miller Says His Home Once Covered By Racial Covenant

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Rep. William E. Miller has volunteered the information that his home once was covered by an anti-Negro restrictive covenant, but he stands on his criticism of President Johnson on the issue of such covenants.

The two situations are entirely different, Miller said Thursday in disclosing that his $60,000 home in a Washington suburb had at one time been covered by a deed "that excluded its sale to persons of the Negro race."

Miller raised the issue in a statement distributed to reporters.

The New York congressman said the prohibition against the sale to Negroes was inserted in 1946 into a deed covering all the land in his neighborhood in Bethesda, Md. He said he purchased the property in 1958, 10 years after the U.S. Supreme Court had ruled that such racial covenants were invalid.

On the other hand, he said that President Johnson had a racial covenant inserted in 1945 in property that, Miller said, had been purchased in 1938 without such a restriction.

Miller's statement was issued at Bakersfield, Calif., his first stop in a two-day swing through the state, considered one of the key battlegrounds in the election campaign.

Miller told a crowd of 5,000 at the Bakersfield airport that he did not think the Republicans could win without carrying California.

The bed is the oldest article of furniture still in existence.

City To Get New Democrat Chief

Selection of a new Democrat city chairman for East Liverpool will be made at a meeting of the Columbiana County Democratic Central Committee Tuesday night at 8 at the Lisbon headquarters.

Don R. Gosney, county party chairman, said Ray Winters has resigned the city post for health reasons.

The committee will meet with candidates to discuss campaign plans and the annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner in October.

Gosney said $152 was netted in Lisbon from a canvass for party funds last weekend. The countywide canvass will be completed this weekend in East Liverpool, Wellsville, Salem and East Palestine.

Reports are not in from most of the precincts in those communities.

Gosney said Rep. Wayne L. Hays will address the Columbiana Kiwanis Club Monday night at 6:30 at Heck's Restaurant and the Women's Democrat Club at 8:30 at the Columbiana High School.

Further Talks Slated In Brick Plant Strike

Crescent Brick Co. and Local 476 of the United Brick & Clayworkers Union are slated to resume negotiations on a new contract Tuesday morning at the plant in New Cumberland.

It will be the third bargaining session since the 45-member local struck Sept. 1 with expiration of the old contract. The last negotiations meeting was Tuesday, although the union's committee met separately on Wednesday and Thursday.

Peter P. Popovich of New Brighton, international union representative, indicated questionable progress on Tuesday. J. Clair Repleg of the Pittsburgh office of the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service called both sides together for next week.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

OHIO—Temperatures will average 2-5 degrees below normal. Representative normal high and low temperatures are Cincinnati 77-53, Columbus 74-50 and Cleveland 71-48. Warmer over the weekend, then cooler early next week and warmer again Wednesday. Scattered showers first part of next week expected to average one-half of an inch.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Can you help us understand a new girl in our crowd? She is a high school junior and we like her very much, but something about her is a mystery. Also it's irritating.

Veronica has a habit of laughing out loud over absolutely nothing. Her laugh is sort of shrill—almost a shriek. It can get on a person's nerves. If I say to her, "What did you do last night?" She will reply, "Nothing much—stayed home, looked at TV and washed my hair." Then she gives out with this piercing laugh.

Once I asked her what was so funny and she answered, "Nothing."

Is her sense of humor superior? Can it be that we are too dense to get the point and she doesn't want to explain things? Thanks for your help.—THE CROWD.

Dear Crowd: Veronica laughs because she is self-conscious, not because she thinks something is funny.

Say nothing but try to make her feel comfortable and she will laugh less.

New Triangle Twist

Dear Ann: Three years ago I wrote to you about my husband and another woman. When I learned of the affair I was crushed. He got down on his knees and swore the affair meant nothing and if I would forgive him he would spend the rest of his life making it up to me.

Your advice was, "Forgive and forget. Trust him. He won't fail you." Well, I took your advice and three months ago it happened again—this time in my own home—with my dearest friend.

I saw it coming but decided if he was one of those immature men who had to cheat I'd rather he cheat with someone I know and like.

Here is the problem: My husband has been so ashamed since I caught them that he can't hold up his head in this woman's presence. He doesn't want her in our house ever again.

Frankly, I like this woman very much. She is wonderful company and I'd hate to give up her friendship.—M. I. WRONG?

Dear M.I.: Just when I think I've heard everything I get a letter like yours. The situation is too close to that old joke—"My husband ran off with my best friend. What shall I do? I miss her."

Yes, M.I.—you are Wrong. If you must continue the friendship do so in the afternoon—at her house—and tell her why she can't come to yours.

Critics Critic

Dear Ann: So now you are an art critic in addition to your other talents—talents too numerous to mention.

You answered "Thillilia" like a real pro. When she said the prize-winning painting was nothing but a solid black canvas you told her the judges thought they saw something more than just solid black.

Of course they did. They probably were drinking vodka martinis the night before the judging and they saw swirls and magnificent bursts of color.

To heck with great artists like Michelangelo, Raphael, Gauguin, Renoir, Rembrandt and Van Gough. They are too exquisite for our ugly minds. We are captivated by the modern slop.—BARCLAY SQUARE.

Dear Square: You write so well it's a shame you never learned to read. What I said was, "There is good modern art and there is bad modern art... there is good representational art and there is bad representational art." I don't pretend to know a great deal about either.

The mail on this subject contained knocks from both sides—equal in number, which proves again that the middle of the road is the most dangerous place of all. That's where most of the accidents happen.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Young Assails Taft, Goldwater

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Rep. Robert Taft Jr. and Sen. Barry M. Goldwater are "outside the mainstream" of the nation's life because of their stand on President Johnson's Appalachia and anti-poverty programs, says Sen. Stephen M. Young.

Young made the statement at Ohio University Thursday night in a speech as part of his campaign for re-election.

His opponent is Taft, Ohio's Republican congressman - at-large.

He hurled barbs both at Taft and Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, for voting against the Appalachia and anti-poverty programs.

Young said he could not understand how Taft could aspire to represent Ohio in the Senate and still vote against the war on poverty bill.

President Johnson's war on poverty program, Young said, "aims at helping 35 million Americans break away from the cycle of poverty and join the mainstream of the nation's life and economy."

Car Sales Climb, Tax Data Shows

An increasing volume of new car sales in Columbiana County was indicated in sales tax figures announced today at Columbus by State Treasurer John D. Herbert.

Auto sales taxes produced $23,437 in the two weeks ending Sept. 19, a gain of $3,057 from the $20,380 listed in the same two weeks of 1963. For the fiscal year to date, they total $174,754, up $18,608 from the $156,146 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year. Sales taxes on other items totaled $47,250 in the two weeks ending Sept. 19, off $9,906 from the $57,156 listed for the same time in 1963. For the fiscal year to date, the taxes total $323,448, down $11,600 from the $335,048 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

On Aug. 25, 1958, at Vostok, in Antarctica, a temperature of 125.3 degrees below zero was recorded.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Little Wives: I have a hint for the men this time. You'd be amazed how many husbands read the hints we share every day. I guess they want to keep up with the home front; but they do send in answers to our problems, and even have queries of their own.

And the same old question always comes up — "Every time I take a shower, the mirror in the bathroom clouds up and I can't shave in a hurry."

Well, gentlemen, how I ever came across my discovery I will never know, but I was so mad one morning after taking my shower that I tried everything, including colorless fingernail polish! Nothing worked.

Then it dawned on me... plastic wrap!

By golly, I went to the kitchen, tore a small piece off the roll and smoothed it over a portion of the glass, being very careful to get all wrinkles out. Guess what?

The stuff works!

YOU CAN SEE through it... steam or no.

I was absolutely amazed. No matter how foggy the mirror got while bathing, I could see through this plastic... even when the rest of the mirror was still foggy. (I was so happy that I had been mad enough to figure out something which I think is amazing!)

Here's my suggestion in short form after testing it for two months:

Be sure the mirror is clean, and the plastic is smooth before applying it. Don't put it in the middle of the mirror... put it near one edge so that after the bathroom door is opened, and the steam on the mirror clears up, you can use the rest of the mirror. Don't cover the whole mirror... only a portion about the size of your face.

I know you don't believe this. But I wouldn't tell you if it weren't so. You'll just have to try this. Cost's nothing.

The best of my love to each and every one of you next time you use that mirror.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: I store my hats on one gallon bleach bottles.

I just cut the upper portion of the bottle off evenly, turn the bottle upside down, and lo and behold have a perfect hat stand.

I can line up six of these converted bottles on my closet shelf for less than nothing.

MRS. "BE" ERDOSS.

Thanks for this hint, "Be".

... and gals, be sure to cover your hats with plastic bags to keep that old dust off.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: We use a great deal of ice cream so I buy it in half-gallon cartons, but no one likes to dish it up after it gets so solid in the freezing compartment.

Here is my solution...

I save all the small containers from cottage cheese, sour cream, and other containers which have lids (no glass).

When I bring the ice cream home from the store, I dish it into these containers while it is in the softened stage. Then I put the lids on and place the containers in the freezer.

When anyone wants ice cream, they can choose the size they want, remove the lid, and eat right out of the container.

MILDRED STEWART.

DEAR HELOISE: Put a little water in your bathtub or wash basin and add a few drops of cologne — then shut the door. Soon your room will have a wonderful aroma. Good way to use up old cologne, too!

MRS. W. T.

DEAR HELOISE: I save my empty thread spools and slip them over the necks of clothes hangers. They keep the clothes from jamming up together on the clothes rod.

ADDIE M. BARRY.

County Scouting Enrolls 3,000

LISBON — More than 3,000 boys and adults are participating in scouting in the Columbiana Boy Scout Council, according to C. Emory Miller of East Palestine, council president.

The council will hold its annual campaign for operating funds beginning Monday. Scouting serves boys through nearly 100 units, packs, troops and posts. Cub Scouting is for boys 8-10, Boy Scouting for 11 to 14 and Explorer Scouting for boys 14 and older.

The council president pointed out that the support of every community in the scout council makes this program available to all boys in its area.

PTA Executive Board Will Meet In Industry

The Executive Board of the Ray Snyder Parent - Teacher Association will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. George Anderson of Industry. Mrs. George Kelly will be co-hostess.

Plans for the monthly meeting Oct. 8 will be discussed. "Fathers Night" will be observed. Mrs. Woodrow Pflugh is president.

The TA will sponsor a bazaar Oct. 17. Mrs. Robert Smith, chairman, announced that this will be the only project for the year, if it is successful. Proceeds will be used for the new school library.

Promising Career Ended . . .

A collision involving two cars and three tractor-trailer trucks in dense fog on the New York Thruway brought an end to a promising career of jockey Austin Gillespie of Newell.

Gillespie was killed in the collision Tuesday morning.

The well-liked jockey was scheduled to ride at Waterford Park later this fall.

The 20-year-old rider practically grew up on a race track, living near Waterford Park.

He had been riding for two years and piled up an impressive record in that time.

AUSTIN GILLESPIE
Shows Aboard Doc Schaeffer At Waterford.

Through Aug. 31 of this year, his record listed 559 mounts, with 55 winners, 80 seconds and 66 thirds. He was in the money a good share of the time and his purse earnings were $65,199.

Gillespie rode his first winner on Aug. 22, 1962, at Weymouth Fair in Massachusetts. He lost his apprentice allowance on Oct. 23, 1963, at Green Mountain (N.Y.) on his 40th winner.

His older brother, Gary Gillespie, 23, is carrying on the tradition, riding on Massachusetts tracks.

The Way The Ball Bounces . . .

LAST WEEK'S average on our football selections wasn't outstanding, with six right and four wrong. We'll try to do better this time.

For the first time this season we are picking the Potters on the losing end in their battle with Steubenville Central. A big Crusader line and a powerful back in Buster Yannon have swayed our thinking to select Steubenville by a touchdown or more. In a case like this we always hope we're wrong.

In games around the district tonight, we like Toronto, with a big forward wall, to trip Wellsville, and Oak Glen to romp over Weirton Madonna.

Midland had a tough game with East Liverpool last week, but we're picking the Leopards to nip Beaver by a narrow margin.

Springfield Local should win at Beaver Local. East Canton is our choice over United and Lorain should rip Salem.

The Tri-County season will open tonight. Minerva should down Lisbon, Poland rates an edge on Columbiana and East Palestine should top Sebring.

The Tri-County spotlight tonight, however, must fall on the Louisville-Leetonia contest. Leetonia has come up with its best outfit in several seasons, but Louisville has Bob Gladieux and he might be the difference. Louisville in this contest.

In Saturday frays, Springfield Local from Mahoning County rates the nod over Southern Local, while Lowellville is favored over Crestview and Stanton should win its first at Wayne.

This 'N That In Football . . .

AN OVERFLOW crowd is expected tonight at Wintersville where the big Warriors meet a powerful Girard eleven. That looks like the best football in the Ohio Valley tonight.

Wintersville has romped over two foes and Girard you remember blasted Steubenville Big Red, 34-0.

IF YOU judged football like boxing, it would go something like this in last week's Massillon-Niles game at Akron. Niles would have been given the first quarter, but Massillon the other three. The big and aggressive Tiger line made the difference.

The victory was a big one for Earle Bruce in his first year in Tigerland.

Following the game, Niles head coach Glenn Stennett said "the kids played a good game, if there is any blame, you can blame me for bad calls, or what have you."

Niles and Massillon will tangle again next year at Massillon, with the Tigers going to Niles the following season.

LOU VENDITTI'S Canton Lincoln team has chalked up two victories, smothering New Philly in the latest last week. Lou's game of the year will come Oct. 2 when he sends his Lincoln eleven against Canton McKinley.

Some observers say that McKinley is the best in the state this season, but will have to prove that to Massillon when the two meet Nov. 14.

Idaho Golfer Leads

By 2 In Ladies PGA

VISALIA, Calif. (AP)—Shirley Englehorn has taken dead aim on first prize in the $11,000 Ladies Professional Golf Association open here.

The Caldwell, Idaho golfer fired a blistering 68 Thursday over the par 71 course in posting the lowest score recorded in the Visalia open's three-year history. Her rounds of 33-35 gave her a two-stroke lead over runner-ups Ruth Jensen of Seattle, Wash., and Sandra Haynie of Phoenix, Ariz.

Bob MacLeod Jr., son of Dartmouth's star halfback of 1938, is a sophomore end on the present Big Green squad.

Phillies Continue Tailspin By Losing To Braves; Idle Reds Trailing By 3

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Philadelphia Phillies are so anxious to win the National League pennant, they may run themselves right out of it.

The faltering Phillies, hit with some controversial and costly baserunning, saw their league lead dwindle to three games Thursday night with a 5-3 loss to Milwaukee.

The defeat, the Phillies' fourth straight and sixth in seven games, sliced their advantage in the loss column to two over second-place Cincinnati, which was idle. Even St. Louis vaulted into the act, sweeping a doubleheader from Pittsburgh and moving to within 3½ games of Philadelphia.

The running in question, struck in the seventh inning with the Braves leading 3-0,

With one out, Richie Allen singled, only the second hit off Wade Blasingame. Alex Johnson grounded to Blasingame whose throw pulled Sandy Alomar off second base. Allen, however, slid past the base, and Alomar pounced on him for the out.

Vic Power then hit a dribbler toward third. Johnson raced to second, rounded the base and promptly was thrown out. Ed Mathews to Denis Menke, ending the threat.

The abortive rally appeared even more important when the Phillies exploded for three runs in the eighth after the Braves got two more in their half of the inning.

But Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch refused to criticize Allen and Johnson, defending them vehemently instead.

"Allen slides aggressively into second trying to break up the double play and doesn't even know the umpire has called him safe, Mauch argued. "He over-slides the bag and is out. There was no way he could know he was safe, he was so intent on taking out the relay man."

"And Johnson has no way to know that Eddie Mathews won't throw to first on the dribbler. He rounded second figuring to take third and maybe score if Mathews makes a bad throw on a tough play."

Aggressive runners or blunders, the Phillies still were faced with the prospect of holding onto their lead with just eight games left. The Reds have 10, including five starting tonight with the New York Mets, while the Cardinals must play nine.

St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 4-2 and 4-0 while Chicago nipped Los Angeles 4-3 in the other NL games Thursday. None were scheduled in the American League.

The AL race resumes tonight with the New York Yankees, leading Baltimore and Chicago by a commanding four games, playing at Washington. The Orioles are at Cleveland while the White Sox play at Kansas City. The Yankees have won nine straight.

The Phillies' losing streak equals their longest of the season.

Joe Torre lead the Braves' attack, driving in three runs with two triples. His eighth-inning blast skipped by right fielder Johnny Callison, who tried for a shoestring catch, and brought home Hank Aaron, who singled, and Mathews, who walked, with the decisive runs. Callison singled in two runs in the three-run Phillie eighth, but Chi Chi Olivo relieved Blasingame and snuffed out the rally. Jim Bunning suffered his sixth defeat against 18 victories.

Bob Gibson, 17-11, scattered nine hits in the opener, and Ray Sadecki, 19-10, came back with a five-hitter in the second game as the Cardinals swept the Pirates. Gibson struck out 11 batters, raising his league-leading total to 232 and breaking a team record set by Sam Jones.

Bill White's bases-loaded single in the fifth inning drove in the two decisive runs in the first game. Donn Clendenon clouted a two-run homer in the Pirates' seventh. Lou Brock and Mike Shannon homered for St. Louis in the nightcap.

EL Runners Defeated By Aliquippa

Aliquippa handed the East Liverpool cross-country team its first loss of the season by scoring a 30-25 victory Thursday afternoon at the East Liverpool Country Club.

Jon Pilgrim paced the Potters by winning the race in a time of 9:39 over a two-mile course. Blair Martin of Aliquippa finished second in 9:43.

Other runners who placed for East Liverpool included Mike Kelly fifth, Joe Massey, seventh, Greg Manning, eighth and Bill Loy, ninth.

East Liverpool will host Leavittsburg next Thursday.

E. Palestine Tops East Jr. By 14-8 Count

East Palestine scored twice in the first half and came away with a 14-8 victory over East Junior High Thursday at East Palestine.

The contest served as the opener for East Junior which saw a blocked punt lead to an East Palestine touchdown in the first period. The young Bulldogs drove for their second TD.

East Junior scored in the fourth quarter when John Frederick was on the receiving end of a Mike Hughes' pass which covered 65 yards. Ray Boyd ran the conversion.
The victory was the second for East Palestine.

Giants Picked Over Skins In Battle Slated Tonight

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sam Huff's return to Yankee Stadium for a Friday night game with the New York Giants opens a promising weekend of pro football that will end with an unusual Monday night pairing of Green Bay and Detroit.

A full seven-game program in the National Football League and a four-game chart in the American Football League that includes a San Diego at Buffalo match are on the schedule.

Form and football pickers took a horrible beating last week when favorites fell from coast to coast. All of the NFL games could have been turned around in the last two minutes. The old average dropped to 5-7-2 in the NFL and 4-3 in the AFL for an over-all total of 9-10-2. You could do better with a hat pin. But let's try again (all games Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL
New York 21, Washington 17 (Friday night) — Battle of the league's two non-winners.

Giants need this one so bad it hurts, especially after all the comments about the Huff deal. Rookie Gary Wood gets first start. Redskins are battered with several key men including Sonny Jurgensen below par. The host Giants could do it on the ground.

Baltimore 21, Chicago 14 — A real toughie. The visiting Bears showed they can move the ball the score last week against Vikings. Colts upset Packers. On hunch Johnny Unitas will hit Bears' right side with strikes to Raymond Berry, the pick is the Colts.

Cleveland 27, Philadelphia 14 — Eagles probably in over their heads this time. Jim Brown should be ready for a 100-yard day and he just loves that turf at Franklin Field.

Dallas 21, Pittsburgh 21 — The visiting Cowboys' ground game too tough for Steeler defense and Tommy McDonald should due.

St. Louis 24, San Francisco 14 — Cardinals' Charles Johnson should find the holes in 49ers' pass defense. Host San Francisco is hurting with J.D. Smith out of action.

Los Angeles 17, Minnesota 14 — Aches and pains of Bill Brown and Tommy Moran leave the visiting Vikings short of running backs although Brown is expected to play.

Green Bay 17, Detroit 14 (Monday night) — Packers' ground game hurt by absence of guard Jerry Kramer. This will be a rugged one with a field goal by Paul Hornung a possible winner. The host Lions have regular defensive backfield together for first time in a year with return of Night Train Lane.

AFL
Buffalo 24, San Diego 21 (Saturday night) — The host Bills have explosive ground game with Cookie Gilchrist. Loss of Lance Alworth reduces Charles' punch although Paul Lowe is due to play.

New York 24, Boston 21 — The visiting Jets have had week to get ready while Pats are coming off a tough winning game against San Diego.

Houston 28, Denver 20 — Sammy Baugh thinks Sid Blanks, his hot shot rookie, is the greatest. Jacky Lee will be pressing hard against his old Houston mates but Bronco offense has consisted largely of field goals by Gene Mingo. This one is at Denver.
Kansas City 28, Oakland 21 — Return of Chris Burford big boost to Chiefs but Raiders will be tough at home. Much depends on availability of Archie Matsos to bolster Oakland defense.

Hanover Captures Little Brown Jug

By FRITZ HOWELL

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Billy Haughton, debt driver of harness horses, figures he was lucky to get home in front with Vicar Hanover in Thursday 19th annual $66,500 Little Brown Jug.

But come home in front he did for a $24,638 payoff which vaulted the Vicar's 1964 salary to $79,360. Haughton, the 40-year-old reinsman-trainer from Glen Head, N.Y., has won over 2,000 races, but of this one he declared:

"We were lucky to win. I thought we were trapped after a half mile of the deciding heat, and at the three-quarters I was really concerned. But the colt proved he was ready and when we got out of the pocket near the head of the stretch I knew we could win."

Vicar Hanover, bay son of Torpid, the 1957 Jug victor, had everything his own way in the first heat of the test for three-year-old pacers over Delaware County fairgrounds half-mile track. He made every post a winning one in 2:02, despite 50-degree temperatures and 20-mile winds.

Combat Time, with 36-year-old Bruce Nickells of Orlando, Fla., at the helm, took the second division the same way, in 2:00 4-5. Three of the 13 entrants were ousted in the preliminary heats of the split race, and the other 10 came back for the third.

Combat Time, purchased as a yearling for $4,700 by the Tamarrack Stables of Painesville, Ohio, led all the way in the deciding heat, hitting the quarter in 28.2, the half in an even minute, and the three-quarters in 1:30 4-5—but Vicar Hanover nipped him 80 yards from the wire and won by less than a length in 2:01.

Up to then the ultimate winner had been locked in third place, with Senator Burton second at the half and Red Carpet in the place position at the three-quarters post.

Attorney Donald D. MacFarlane of Grosse Pointe, Mich., owner of the victor, said:

"This is the greatest thrill of my life. At last Michigan has beaten Ohio State."

Conference Games Mark College Grid Schedule

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

As a group, football coaches are notoriously pessimistic. After an upset — and this young college season has produced a flock of them — they can be downright dismal.

But what about the coach of a team that scored a 21-0 triumph in its only outing? Listen to Clay Stapleton of Iowa State University before his conference opener against Oklahoma State.

"We had two very poor practices back to back, and unless our attitude improves, we need not even show up."

On the other hand, there's Hank Folsberg of Texas A&M, which lost 9-6 to Louisiana State last week and is generally picked to finish near the bottom of the Southwest Conference. Hank said he was quite pleased with his team's performance.

The Aggies open the second big weekend of the college season tonight against independent Houston, which has a 1-1 record. Toledo is at Detroit in the only other major Friday night game.

Illinois and Ohio State, picked as two of the top in the Big Ten, open their seasons on the Saturday schedule that includes a surprising number of conference games, surprising for this stage of the season at least.

Four of the elite — Texas, Alabama, Mississippi and Auburn — have conference tests following their impressive opening victories.

Defending national champion Texas, unbeaten in almost two years and a 31-0 victor over Tulane last week, visits Lubbock and an ambitious Texas Tech team that wants to prove it has at least earned its Southwest Conference spurs. The Red Raiders shocked Mississippi State 21-7 in their opener.

That one, like mighty Alabama's home game with Tulane, is at night. Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide, sparked by quarterback Joe Namath, swept over Georgia 31-3 last week and is a top-heavy favorite over Tulane.

Mississippi, ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press' pre-season poll, lived up to that high spot with a 30-0 romp through the vaunted defenses of Memphis State and now must test its defense against the solid Kentucky team.

And Auburn, 30-0 victor over Houston, has a bigger test against Tennessee.

Illinois is favored to win its opener at California and Ohio State is a solid pick at home against Southern Methodist. Indiana, a dark-horse in the Big Ten picture, is a slight favorite against Northwestern in the only conference game.

Minnesota is at home against Nebraska in the television game of the week, and is expected to win.

Probably the top game in the Midwest has Oklahoma, No. 2 in the pre-season picks and a shaky 13-3 victor over Maryland, going against Southern Cal, tied by Duke 9-9 in its opener.

Air Force, upset maker against Washington, makes its first visit to Michigan. Army takes its three-platoon system against rugged Boston College and Navy and Roger Staubach play William and Mary.

Rutgers and Princeton open their schedule in the renewal of the first college football game ever played, in 1869.

MARY ANN HARVEY, young lady trainer at Waterford Park is shown with the star of her stable. He is Sonoma Pass, winner of several races at major tracks throughout the western part of the country.

Lady Trainer Inherits Love For Horse Racing

Thoroughbred racing probably has more persons connected with it who have an inherent affinity to the game than in any other sport. The various facets of the sport of kings show innumerable persons playing important parts in them, from presidents and general managers of racing plants to the average stable hands who are following the same careers of their parents and grandparents.

This is especially true with those who play a major part in the actual racing end of the game.

One of many such comparisons is the part played by Mary Ann Harvey at Waterford Park. Miss Harvey, who hails from Phoenix, Arizona, is the latest addition to the trainers ranks at this northern panhandle track. Having been born in Prescott, Arizona, this 21-year-old blond is following in the footsteps of her stepfather, Harold Parsons, a prominent owner and trainer of thoroughbreds, just as his father and grandfather did before him.

Mary was raised around horses and race tracks, and at the tender age of fourteen was the proud owner of two thoroughbreds, racing at several western tracks. She also operated a feed and tack store at Turf Paradise while still in her teens.

At eighteen she was orphaned again, when her stepfather passed away. She immediately stepped in and took over his extensive racing stable, applied for and received her trainers license, after passing the necessary test with flying colors, and has been actively training race horses ever since.

Miss Harvey actually supervises the operation of her stable and does most of the training herself.

She majored in Arts and Sci-

Northwestern-Indiana Game Features Big 10

CHICAGO — After its abbreviated beginning last Saturday, the 69th Big Ten football season moves into its most active weekend of the season, Sept. 26.

The Indiana-Northwestern Conference opener at Bloomington highlights the slate with the eight other teams meeting non-Conference opponents.

Northwestern, under new coach Alex Agase, is fresh from an opening game triumph, 7-3, over Oregon State... a victory which displayed some defensive might on the part of the Wildcats.

Indiana, vulnerable to passing in 1963 (19 aerial TDs), has high hopes its defensive secondary is manned with sufficient talent to withstand the accurate tossing of Northwestern quarterback Tom Myers. This opener will also begin Hossier full-back Tom Nowatzke's defense of the Big Ten rushing championship. Nowatzke, playing only six league games in 1963, won the title by nearly 100 yards.

Seven of the Big Ten's non-league foes opened their seasons last weekend, posting a 5-2 record. It might have been 6-1, but Michigan State's opponent, North Carolina, was upset, 14-13, by arch rival North Carolina State.

Minnesota will put an unknown quantity before a national television audience against the defending Big Eight and Orange Bowl champions, Nebraska. Last weekend the Cornhuskers romped to a 56-0 victory over South Dakota.

The biggest non-Conference battle will take place in Madison between Notre Dame and Wisconsin. Ex - Northwestern coach Ara Parseghian will be in his first game as head man of the Irish and a two-phased long-time rivalry ensues.

Wisconsin coach Milt Bruhn has a 6-2 victory edge over Parseghian since the two first bumped heads in 1956. Parseghian won that initial game, 17-7, a Homecoming game at Madison. The second victory, 21-0, was in another Badger Homecoming game. Last season Wisconsin won, 14-9, to close the series gap to 6-7-2 in favor of Notre Dame.

Defending Big Ten and Rose

Bowl champion, Illinois, returns to the West Coast to open its season against California, an upset winner over a strong Missouri team, 21-14, last weekend. Illinois Coach Pete Elliott was the Cal coach from 1957 to 1959 before moving to Champaign and can expect a rough test.

Iowa and Michigan face a pair of teams that won last Saturday via the field goal. Iowa's opponent, Idaho, stopped San Jose State, 3-0, while Michigan's foe, the Air Force, held on to nip Washington, 3-2.

Ohio State and Purdue open at home. The Buckeyes face Southern Methodist, who lost 24-8, to Florida in its first game. Ohio University, a 16-14 winner over West Texas State last weekend, meets the Boilermakers.

'Big Three' Will Make Golf Movie

AKRON, Ohio — Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus will meet at Firestone Country Club next week to film a new TV golf series, "The Big Three," in which they will vie for a $50,000 pot, it was announced today.

The round-robin series will be shown in color on NBC next January.

The Music Corp. of America production will be filmed over a period of four days starting next Tuesday, with two of the three pro golfers meeting in head-to-head combat each day.

Griddler Injured

EAST PALESTINE — Mike O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Brien of 56 E. Clark St., suffered a fractured right arm in a game with West Branch Junior High School Thursday night. O'Brien is a halfback on the eighth grade team. He is in Salem City Hospital. West Branch won 28-14.

South Carolina's football team has 24 lettermen including a few prospects from last year's unbeaten freshman team.

Kramer, Schroeder At Odds Over Outcome At Cleveland

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two old Davis Cup cronies who have been making the big tennis series as players and observers for 20 years, Jack Kramer and Ted Schroeder, were at odds today over the possible outcome of the 53rd Challenge Round.

Kramer likes the Americans and Schroeder strings along with the Australians in the matches opening at 11:30 a.m. EST, on the green clay composition court of the Harold T. Clark Stadium.

The first match sends Chuck McKinley, the No. 1 American player from San Antonio, Tex., against Australia's No. 2 man, Fred Stolle. The second pits Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., against the recognized world champion, Roy Emerson.

"I think the draw and the clay surface favors our boys," said Kramer, a member of the Cup teams of 1939, 1946 and 1947, later king of the pros and successful promoter. "I wouldn't be surprised to see Chuck and Dennis win the first three."

"It will be Australia 3-2 and maybe 4-1," countered Schroeder, a member of the team which last successfully defended the trophy for the United States in 1949. "I haven't missed a Challenge Round since 1938 and I've picked the last 10 on the nose without a miss."

Kramer, 43, from Los Angeles, is here for the television commentary (ABC) while Schroeder, also 43, from LaJolla, Calif., is writing for an Australian newspaper syndicate. Both have been associated closely with the Challenge Round, as broadcasters and writers, since they left the amateur ranks.

The two singles today will be followed by the doubles at noon, EST, Saturday with the final two singles Sunday. Stolle meeting Ralston and Emerson playing McKinley.

80,000 Seen At Buckeyes' Opening Tilt

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — That age-old epidemic known as "football fever" is starting its annual invasion of Ohio's capital.

And it will grow more intense as the 1:30 p.m. Saturday kickoff nears for the Southern Methodist-Ohio State lid-lifter.

The fact that the Mustangs from Texas made only six first downs in losing 24-8 to Florida last week hasn't lowered the temperature of the 80,000-plus fans a single degree.

Buckeye mentor Woody Hayes says the Lone Star invaders are the fastest bunch to face Ohio in some time, and he sees some problems in containing them.

The Mustangs are due to fly in today, but their publicist, Junior Eldredge, has been here since Wednesday with a tale of woe.

"We have seven sophomores on our first offensive team," he said, "and that's as many as Ohio has on its first three teams. We had three captains at Florida last week and couldn't even win the coin toss."

"And coach Hayden Fry, after looking at some Ohio films, said 'our sophomore backs thought they were running into a forest at Florida. At Ohio State it will look like the African jungle.'"

Fry also said the 24-point total run up by Florida was a bit misleading. With the score 10-8, Florida's Jack Harper returned a third-quarter punt 80 yards to break it open. Otherwise Florida's longest running gain was 14 yards, and 56 of the 109 yards passing came on a screen. Florida made only eight first downs.

The Bucks took a long and strenuous workout Thursday despite Hayes' Monday prediction that only a light tapering-off drill would be staged.

While the spotlight is on the SMU-OSU tilt, 25 other games involving Buckeye colleges are on the weekend menu. Toledo visits Detroit tonight, and among Saturday's eye-catchers are Ohio University at Purdue, Miami at Marshall, Wittenberg at Otterbein, Dayton at Cincinnati, Xavier at Kent State, and Bowling Green at North Texas State.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
TO all the dear friends who remembered me during my stay in City Hospital through thoughts, prayers, cards, gifts, flowers and visits. To the nurses, nurses aides, and Alice Jones on 1 North. To Dr. Horger, Dr. Fraser and my roommate Jean Cullen for their care and acts of kindness. As I am unable to thank each one personally, may I take this way of saying "Thank You" from a humble, grateful heart. May God bless each of you in a very special way.
Mrs. (Etta Mae) Kenneth Spore
WE wish to thank our neighbors and many friends for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement. Special thanks to the Dawson Funeral Home and Rev. and Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. DOROTHY LAWTON AND FAMILY.

When you think of GAS OR OIL HEATING think of IRON FIREMAN

Buying heating equipment is a big step for any family. Naturally you want to get the best possible value for your money... but never judge heating equipment on purchase price alone. Too many so-called "bargains" turn out to be the most expensive in the end. Iron Fireman oil and gas heating equipment is built to give you service; it is built to give you years of luxurious comfort with outstanding fuel savings. It is not the lowest priced nor the highest—but in the long run it is by far your best dollar value.

Good installation is equally important. Our men are carefully selected, well equipped and factory trained. We will see that you get the full measure of comfort and fuel economy that is built into Iron Fireman equipment.

How To Keep The Throatline Young

What is the secret of a beautiful throatline past age 40? Can crepey throat be warded off? Is a double chin a subdivision of excess weight, and will dieting fix it? These are some of the burning questions asked most frequently about that fragile line that exposes age so mercilessly.

The secret of a firmly rounded but clearly defined chin and throatline lies in toned muscles and proper head carriage. When the throat muscles are fully toned, the skin on the front of the throat is firmly supported. Fat tends to settle in quiet, undisturbed places, and under the chin is a favorite parking spot. But with toned muscles and elegant head carriage, a double chin hasn't a chance.

One happy 60-year-old reports heartening success with an isometric exercise.

"I have been amazed at the way the tug-of-muscle exercise included in your summer series has helped my throat. I had two lines from under the chin to the base of the throat, and these were gone in about two weeks!"

Whee! Let's repeat that miracle worker. But first, the exercise will make sense, it is important to understand the muscle action.

Between the jaw and the collarbones in a thin sheet of muscle fibers, the platysma, which contracts the skin on the surface of the throat. This broad sheet of muscle arises from the fascia covering the upper part of the pectoral muscle of the chest, its fibers cross the collarbones (clavicle) and proceed obliquely upwards covering the throat, front and sides. The platysma spreads over the chin and blends with the muscles of the mouth. This muscle acts to draw the upper part of the lower lip downward and sideways, and assists in opening the jaw. So, here's the exercise...

SMILE BIG, opening your mouth wide; then "set" your jaw hard. The exercise is to resist strongly with jaw muscles, keep a stiff upper lip and grip by tensing muscles of jaw and throat. In effect, try to open your mouth and close it simultaneously. Hold this strong muscle contraction to a slow count of six or eight. Release and repeat twice. When you clamp the jaw, there should be no movement for the six second contraction. Watch in the mirror and you will see the throat and jaw muscles take hold.

Diet affects weight, but basic to a beautiful throat is tone in the supporting muscles. And erect head posture is de rigueur. Pull up with that line at the back of the neck and keep the tip of the chin level. Do not allow your head to thrust forward, nor the chin to tip up or down.

About 80 per cent of the average person's actions is controlled by his eyes.

Soviet Radio Propaganda Dropping Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union apparently has decided to slack off in its radio offensive toward the West and step it up toward underdeveloped areas and Red China.

And in defensive radio warfare, the Soviet bloc has virtually quit jamming Voice of America broadcasts while putting interference on signals coming from Radio Peking.

U.S. monitors gave some statistics today on how the Communist radio propaganda operations have changed with the shifts in the international political scene:

Soviet short wave propaganda to North American dropped 10 per cent and to West Europe 16 per cent during the summer broadcasting season.

This was interpreted as a sign of easing East-West tensions, plus the great growth of television in the western nations which has taken many people away from their radio sets.

The reduction in transmissions aimed at the advanced Western countries was matched by increases to Asia, Africa and Latin America. Radio Moscow added six languages: Malayalam (an Indian tongue), Lingala for the Congo, Zulu for South Africa, Thai and Cambodian for Southeast Asia and Uighur, transmitted through Radio Tashkent for the western Chinese province of Sinkiang.

Radio Peking started off the year with an increase in its Russian-language broadcasts aimed at its Communist rival which outpaced Soviet broadcast in a Chinese.

The Soviet Bloc jamming of Russian-language broadcasts by the Voice of America, the U.S. government's overseas radio, began to taper off more than a year ago. Now only Bulgaria sends out electronic interference against the U.S. programs.

5 Young Drivers Get Suspensions

LISBON — Traffic Court hearings at the Courthouse have resulted in the suspension of the driving permits of five youths and the fining of another. Suspensions included:

Timothy Dale Mick, 17, of 1308 Commerce St., Wellsville, 30 days and a fine of $10 for speeding, driving an unsafe vehicle, improper registration and false title.

Richard Earl Millhorn, 17, of Irondale R.D. 1, 30 days for reckless operation.

Michael W. Fromm, 16, of Salem R.D. 1, 15 days for following too closely.

Sherri Lynn Beck, 17, of 540 Elizabeth St., East Liverpool, 15 days for speeding.

The permit of Charles R. McCracken, 17, of Salem R.D. 1 was suspended until he installs a muffler on his car.

Lynn E. Harlin, 16, of Alliance R.D. 4 was fined $15 for speeding. Millhorn was cited by Wellsville police, the others by the State Highway Patrol.

Annual Chamber Project

Fire Prevention Week Meeting Planned Monday

Arrangements for the annual district observance of National Fire Prevention Week Oct. 4-10 will be reviewed Monday night at a meeting of representatives of 10 area fire departments with the safety committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The firemen have been invited to the session at 7:30 in the Chamber's office on E. 5th St.

East Liverpool's department will be represented, as well as volunteer organizations in Calcutta, Glenmoor, Liverpool Township East and West, West Point, Chester, Newell, Lawrenceville and Pughtown.

The East Liverpool department will be represented by Chief Charles Bryan, Asst. Chief Alfred VanDyne and Ed Greenwood, spokesman for Local 24, International Association of Fire-Fighters.

Fire prevention literature, posters and safety check - lists secured by the Chamber committee from the National Board of Fire Underwriters will be distributed to the fire department representatives for use in the campaign in their areas.

The safety check-lists are forms which school students are asked to take home for use in finding and eliminating fire hazards.

Beaver Local School Group Will Air Aims

The scope and purpose of the Association for the Advancement of Beaver Local Education will be outlined at a public meeting of ABLE Monday night at 8 at Rogers School.

Roland Marshall, publicity director for the organization, pointed out ABLE aims at enrolling all residents of the school district in an effort to maintain and improve the school programs.

Marshall said ABLE is not just a committee of a few, but a districtwide organization. He said the role of ABLE in the campaign to promote passage of a school levy in the November 3 election will also be described.

Beaver Local Pupils Form Republican Club

Karen Eells of Mud Ln., Calcutta, was elected chairman of the Teen-Agers Republican Club of Beaver Local School District at a meeting Tuesday night at her home.

Others named were Jill Myler, vice chairman; Lorna Elliott, secretary - treasurer, and Jane Raley, reporter.

The club was organized to educate voters on the issues and candidates and to encourage them to vote. Plans were made to distribute literature at rallies and to serve at the annual Republican dinner.

Those interested in joining the club may notify Miss Eells.

Police Quizzing New Suspect In Stocking Slaying

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Homicide detectives were questioning early today a new suspect in the "bloody stocking" slaying of a 42-year-old north side woman which shocked the city two weeks ago.

Detective Lt. James Woods termed the latest suspect—a 25-year-old man—the "best suspect we've had so far." He said "prospects looked pretty good" that the suspect was responsible for the brutal slaying of Mrs. Laura Mae Lowe in her apartment Sept. 11.

The man was arrested Thursday and booked for investigation of homicide last night.

Woods said two detectives left for Washington, D. C., early today with evidence for examination by the FBI. Woods did not disclose the nature of the evidence.

The body of Mrs. Lowe, an employee at Doctor's Hospital and the mother of three grown children, was found beaten and gagged on her bedroom floor the morning of Sept. 11.
